TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Living God's Word

We can pray that we have the strength to respond courageously to Jesus' call to be willing to lose our life for his sake. We ask to be able to discern in our daily lives the way we can "offer (our) bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, your spiritual worship."

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

Podemos orar para que se nos conceda la fortaleza con el fin de poder responder valientemente a la llamada que nos hace Jesus para perder nuestra vida por el. Pedimos poder discernir la manera en que podemos ofrecernos diariamente "como sacrificio vivo, santa y agradable a Dios."

FROM THE CATECHISM

The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceases to draw man to himself. Only in God will he find the truth and happiness he never stops searching for: The dignity of man rests above all on the fact that he is called to communion with God. This invitation to converse with God is addressed to man as soon as he comes into being. For if man exists, it is because God has created him through love, and through love continues to hold him in existence. He cannot live fully according to truth unless he freely acknowledges that love and entrusts himself to his creator. (CCC#27)

LET US PRAY

My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself....But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. Therefore, I will trust you always though I may seem to be lost...I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone. Thomas Merton
