Exaltation of the Holy Cross

September 14, 2014

FOUND HUMAN IN APPEARANCE,
CHRIST JESUS HUMBLLED HIMSELF,
BECOMING OBEDIENT TO DEATH,
EVEN DEATH ON A CROSS.

Philippians 2:7-8

Living God's Word

Young people are good at risking. They do it with abandon, mostly because they've got nothing to lose, and so they do it almost instinctively and without thinking about it. As we begin to accumulate years, we also accumulate stuff. Perhaps to be young at heart is to be willing to risk being emptied.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

A la gente joven le gusta arriesgarse. Lo hacen con cierto abandono, generalmente porque no tienen nada que perder y por tanto lo hacen casi instintivamente y sin pensarlo. A medida que vamos acumulando años también acumulamos cosas. Tal ver ser joven de corazón implique arriesgarnos a vaciarnos.

The challenge in today's Gospel, is to forget how others have behaved towards us and to look to God's way of loving and forgiving. Our focus must be on God.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul...we want to help!

THOUGHTS TO PONDER

The goal of our life is to live with God forever. God who loves us, gave us life. Our own response of love allows God's life to flow into us without limit.

All things in this world are gifts from God, presented to us so we can know God more easily and make a return of love more readily. As a result, we appreciate and use all these gifts of God insofar as they help us to develop as loving persons. But if any of these gifts become the center of our lives, they displace God and so hinder our growth toward our goal.

In everyday life, then, we must hold ourselves in balance before all of these created gifts insofar as we have a choice and are not bound by some obligation. We should not fix our desires on health or sickness, wealth or poverty, success or failure, a long life or a short one. For everything has the potential of calling forth in us a deeper response to our life in God.

Our only desire and our one choice should be this: I want and I choose what better leads to God's deepening his life in me.
(St. Ignatius of Loyola)
