A Message From Pope Francis

At his Sunday, Oct. 6 Angelus address, delivered just after the opening of the Synod of Bishops, Pope Francis called upon families to read the Bible.

"For the family to be able to proceed well, with trust and hope, it must be nurtured by the Word of God," he said. As Bibles were distributed to those in attendance, Pope Francis said, "Today as the Synod for the Family opens, with the help of the Pauline Brothers, there is a Bible for every family. Not just to put on a shelf, but to keep it on hand, dip into it often, both individually and together, husband and wife, parents and children, perhaps in the evening, especially on Sundays. In this way, the family will grow and walk in the light and the strength of God's Word."

Did you know?

RCIA is not just for those who need to complete the Sacraments of Initiation, it is actually open for anyone wanting to learn more about the Catholic faith. We want to invite all of you to refresh or deepen your knowledge in our faith. Please feel free to come and join us.

RCIA sessions are on Sunday 5:00-7:30pm in the Bryerton and Brazaskas rooms. For more information please call Dcn Jose at (520) 459-1967.

Our Lady of the Mountains Fall Festival is drawing near. Our festival committee has been planning and coordinating over the past few months to provide a great community fund raiser for our church.

We need everyone's help to make this festival a success so outside of mass today you will find multiple sign-up sheets for everything from serving food, to selling tickets and set-up and tear-down. Most positions are for a four hour shift. If you can take 1 or 2 shifts, please sign-up where you think you can help.

We also need everyone's help in donating cases of water and sodas for us to sell in the food booths. If every family can bring a case of water and a case of soda, we won't have to buy any, and that becomes pure profit for the church.

Finally, for some of our festival games, we ask that you donate "like new" only stuffed animals that can be used as higher end prizes. We will have a prize booth could use your donations to provide quality prizes for our community.

Please bring your donations to the church on Sunday and leave them in the upper hall. We will collect them after Masses and consolidate them in a more suitable location. Thank you for your donations and your volunteer time. We hope to see all of you, your friends and neighbors at the Festival.

All are invited to our parish's first Family Night sponsored by OLM's Strong Catholic Families team on Friday, 17 October, 6:30 p.m. The focus of this ministry is to learn and grow in the practice of our Catholic faith within our families and church community. This is a family worship and social experience. Share with us how OLM can better serve families, our domestic churches.

When asked "What would save the world?" Blessed Mother Teresa replied, "My answer is prayer. What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in holy hours of prayer."

Catholic Collegians is new group for college students designed to promote faith building, fellowship, and service opportunities. We meet at Cochise College, but the group is open to all university and college students, regardless of age. Weekly meetings consist of prayer, faith sharing, guest speakers, and discussions on various topical subjects such as "Exploring Catholic Apps," "Staying Catholic in College," and "Taking the X out of Christmas." Upcoming meetings will be in Room 900 (outside of library) on Thursdays from 5:00-6:00PM on 10/9, 10/16, 11/6, 11/13, 12/4, and 12/11. Interested students are invited to attend one, some, or all events. In addition, several adult Catholics in the community are graciously volunteering their time as one-on-one mentors for the Catholic Collegians! Don't let this opportunity pass you by! Please contact Mary B. Coyle at coylem@cochise.edu if you would like a full schedule of events or to find out more information about becoming a student member or a mentor.
