SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Living God's Word

Jesus, you came to bring us into deeper communion with the Father and one another. Give us the courage to reach out, as you did, to those in need of our compassion and help. Let us not be afraid of the opinions of others when we see that good can be done. Amen.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

Jesus, tu viniste para llevarnos a una comunión mas intima con el Padre y con nuestro prójimo. Danos el valor para asistir a los necesitados con compasión, como tu lo hiciste. Que no temamos las opiniones de otras personas cuando veamos que algo bueno se puede hacer. Amen.

MARRIAGE TIP OF THE WEEK

How do you handle travel in your marriage? When one of you travels and the other stays home, how do you connect during your separation? Sharing stories of your time away from each other can be one of the sweetest ways to reconnect.

¿Cómo sobrellevas los viajes en tu matrimonio? Cuando uno de los dos viaja y el otro se queda en casa ¿cómo conectan durante su separación? Compartir historias de su tiempo lejos del uno al otro puede ser una de las maneras más cariñosas para volver a conectar.

In the Gospel today Jesus moved with pity touched the leper and healed him. Let us pray today for the grace to be generous with our gifts to help those who are suffering.

By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you indeed put your faith into action as you bring healing to the poor, hungry and weeping.

DATES TO REMEMBER

February 18- Ash Wednesday Fast and Abstinence

One of the most stinging words that we can use to describe another human being is disgusting. Here are two reasons why this word stings.

First, the word disgusting stings badly because it expresses revulsion. It is one thing to say that a smell is disgusting or a certain behavior is disgusting. But when you label a human being as disgusting, you express revulsion for one of God's most precious creatures.

Second, the word disgusting stings badly because it is usually spoken with a force that borders on hatred. The lesson in today's Gospel is about accepting and reaching out to those whom society might consider disgusting.

You can better understand what this lesson means for you today if you understand how disgusting the disease of leprosy was in Jesus' day. A person with leprosy smelled terrible; rotting skin stinks. The person would be very hard to look at; leprosy disfigures the human body, leaving sores and resulting in missing fingers or toes or facial features and other areas of the body. The culture of Jesus day forbade exchanges with those who had leprosy but that was not a hard rule to follow because no one wanted to be near a person with the disease.

Today's Gospel tells us to identify people today who are like those with leprosy in Jesus' day; those who are considered disgusting. Now this is not about disease only. There are many things about people that today's culture shuns and finds disgusting.

Once you identify those who might be considered the people with leprosy today, you are to respond just as Jesus did: with compassion, stretching out your hands, touching and helping.

Give Us This Day: FREE COPY

Give Us This Day is a monthly publication from Liturgical Press created to help sustain your personal prayer practices with daily prayer for Morning and Evening, prayers and readings for Mass each day, along with a reflection on the Scriptures, and a daily profile of a saintly witness.

They have sent us free copies to distribute for the month of March. They will be available at the back of Church, but are a limited supply, so hurry and pick one up.

If after enjoying this free copy you decide to subscribe, please follow the instructions on the slip inside your free copy and Our Lady of the Mountains will receive a credit of $5.00 for each new subscription purchased.

Our Lady of the Mountains Parish is excited to announce that they are starting Little Church at the 5:00pm Mass on Sunday evenings. Children ages 3-6 will be called up by Fr. Henri before the readings and they will be taken to the upper hall where the Sunday readings will be given to them in their language and with special activities. Lisa Locke will be the adult doing this and we will have a couple teenagers helping out. The children will come back after the homily. This will start on Sunday, February 22nd.

PEOPLE OF FAITH, HOPE & CHARITY

Here are some highlights of what you make possible through your donation to the Annual Catholic Appeal:

Seminarian and Vocation Education

Coordinates the selection, formation, education, and ordination of candidates for the priesthood in the Diocese of Tucson.

The Office of Vocations seeks to create an awareness and promotion of vocation life.

It serves by encouraging and supporting local parishes, groups, and individuals in carrying out their responsibility for promoting Church vocations.

Seminarian Support and Education is also provided for the men who have answered the call and are currently attending the seminary. We currently have 12 seminarians preparing for ordination.

The Office of the Permanent Diaconate

Provides for invitation, pastoral support, formation, continuing education, and evaluation of permanent Deacons.

Presently, we have 25 men participating in the diaconate formation and we have 149 ordained Deacons serving in our diocese.

Catholic Community Services

Provides life-changing assistance to families, children, victims of domestic violence, people who are elderly, poor or with disabilities through the agencies of CCS.

The Office of Catholic Schools

Coordinates the development of Christian formation, curriculum, administrative and personnel policy for the 19 Catholic elementary schools and six Catholic high schools in the Diocese.

Native American Missions

Receive ongoing support that help support priests and also provides grant funding in time of financial difficulties. Support is provided to Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha Parish, San Xavier Mission, San Solano Mission, San Carlos Mission and dozens of other Native American Missions and chapels throughout the Diocese.

Grants

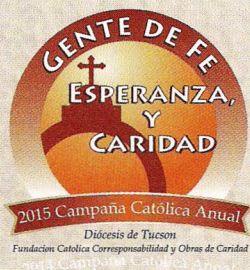

A successful ACA means that more money is available to be awarded as grants to support Catholic charitable, religious and educational programs, and ministries in the Diocese of Tucson under the authority of the Bishop of Tucson.

These are but a few of the ministries and programs you make possible with your donation. All in all, thousands of lives are saved or changed for the better because of your generosity!

Thank you for your support of the 2015 Annual Catholic Appeal

FUNDACIÓN CATÓLICA POR LA DIÓCESIS DE TUCSON

2015 Campaña Católica Anual

GENTE DE FE, ESPERANZA & CARIDAD

En la lista siguiente se destacan algunas de las obras que es posible realizar gracias a sus donaciones a la Campaña Católica Anual:

Educación en el Seminario y en apoyo a las Vocaciones

Coordinación de la selección, formación, educación y ordenación de los candidatos al sacerdocio de la Diócesis de Tucson. La Oficina de Vocaciones procura crear y fomentar una consciencia de la vida de las vocaciones. Su labor abarca la promoción y el apoyo en las parroquias y grupos locales que trabajan para cumplir con su responsabilidad de fomentar las vocaciones en la Iglesia.

Apoyo y educación para los hombres que han respondido al llamado y asisten al Seminario. En la actualidad hay 12 seminaristas preparándose para la ordenación.

La Oficina del Diaconato Permanente

Se encarga de la invitación, apoyo pastoral, formación, educación continua y evaluación de los diáconos permanentes. En la actualidad, 25 hombres participan de la formación para el diaconato y ya hay 149 diáconos ordenados brindando sus servicios en nuestra diócesis.

Servicios Comunitarios Católicos

Proporciona asistencia de cambios de vida para familias, niños, víctimas de la violencia doméstica, personas que son ancianos, pobres o con discapacidad a través de las agencias de CCS.

La Oficina de escuelas católicas

Coordina el desarrollo de normas para la formación cristiana, el curriculum, la administración y el personal de las 20 escuelas primarias católicas y seis escuelas secundarias católicas de la Diócesis.

Misiones de indígenas norteamericanos

Reciben asistencia continua en apoyo a los sacerdotes, así como subvenciones en tiempos de dificultades económicas. La asistencia beneficia a la parroquia Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, a las Misiones de San Xavier, de San Solano y de San Carlos y a docenas más de misiones y capillas de indígenas norteamericanos en toda la Diócesis.

Subsidios

Una Campaña Católica Anual exitosa significa que habrá más dinero disponible para otorgar subvenciones a programas católicos caritativos, religiosos y educativos y a los ministerios de la Diócesis de Tucson bajo la autoridad del Obispo de Tucson.

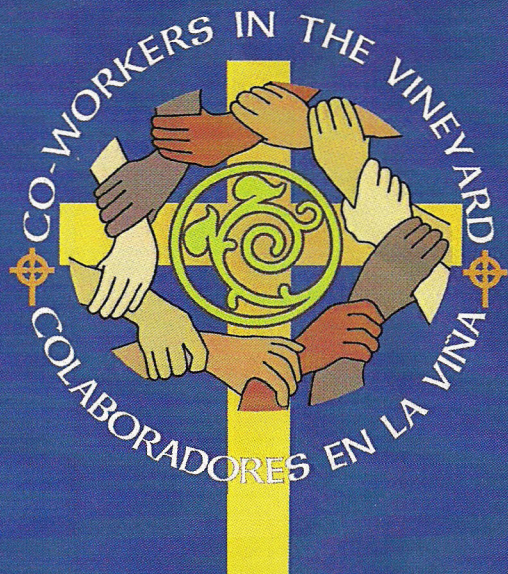

Estos son tan solo algunos de los ministerios y programas que pueden operar gracias a sus donaciones. En suma, por su generosidad es posible salvar o cambiar miles de vidas.

Gracias por su donación a la Campaña Católica Anual 2015!

People of Faith, Hope & Charity

A conference for ALL CATHOLICS of the Diocese of Tucson at the Tucson Convention Center

What is Co-Workers in the Vineyard?

Co-Workers in the Vineyard is a Catholic Conference, coordinated by the Diocese of Tucson for all Catholics of Southern Arizona and beyond. The goal of the conference is to bring people together to grow in faith, hope, and charity through inspiring keynote presentations, spiritually enlightening workshops, and opportunities to learn and network. This is the 2nd Tri-Annual conference of the Diocese. The first one was in March of 2012.

Who should attend the Conference?

All are welcome! We encourage all parishes, schools, ministries and movements to encourage their people to attend the conference. Families are welcome (minors must remain with legal guardian at all times), parish and school staff are welcome, those who are committed to the Catholic faith and those who are exploring the Catholic faith are all welcome.

Where can I stay? (Lodging)

The diocese is contracted with Hotel Tucson City Center (Granada Ave and 6th St.) to secure $89 room rates during this conference. Charter Bus transportation will be available between Hotel Tucson City Center and the Tucson Convention Center throughout the conference. The hotel is ¾ mile from the Convention Center. Reservations can be made by calling the hotel directly and asking for the Diocese of Tucson rate: 520-622-3000

The Nightmare Before Forgiveness

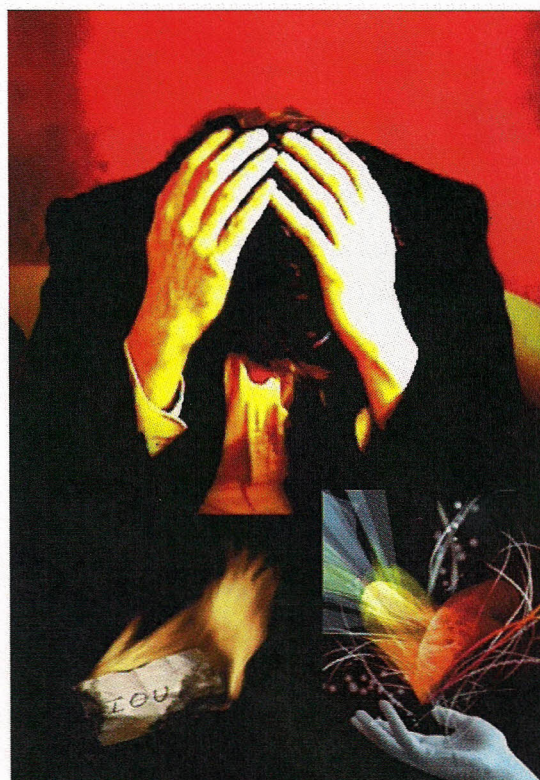

A Lenten Parish Mission

Forgiveness sets us free from the nightmare of betrayal, anger and resentment. Forgiveness is the way of Jesus. It allows us to take back our personal power from those who have hurt us and provides us with inner-peace.

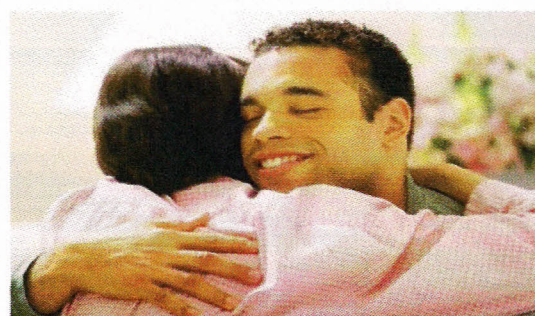

Jesus Christ redeemed us through His great love and forgiveness. Forgiveness is central to His Great Commandment of Love: Love your God, love your neighbor, love yourself— even your enemy— as “I have loved you.” Yet, many of us reject this teaching. We refuse to forgive those who have abused and hurt us and we even refuse to forgive ourselves for our own mistakes.

When we are trapped inside unforgiving hearts, we are out of right-relationship with God, ourselves and others. And clearly, we can't expect God or others to forgive us for our failings if we remain unwilling to forgive.

Redemption begins in our hearts. It requires love, forgiveness and reconciliation. If you are suffering from an unforgiving heart, this Parish Mission is for you. It will help you set your heart free from the pain of the past.
