Living God's Word

In today's readings, Christ leaves his "corporation," the church, and trusts the "employees", his disciples, to run things in his absence. Considering the two-thousand-year history of the Church, many might question the wisdom of his decision? Yet, Christ knew that the Spirit would always guide the Church in continuing his messianic mission.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

En las lecturas de hoy Cristo deja su "empresa", la Iglesia, y confía a sus "empleados", los discípulos, la obra que deben hacer en su ausencia. Si consideramos la historia de la Iglesia en los dos mil años pasados muchos dudarían sobre las sabiduría de esta decisión! Sin embargo, Cristo sabía que en la continuidad de su misión profética el Espíritu siempre guiaría a la Iglesia.

Today as we celebrate the feast of the Ascension we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through his disciples...and now through us.

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

Marriage Tip of the Week

What's the most dangerous part of your body? , it's your tongue. It can discourage, wound, embarrass, and humiliate your beloved. You may try to conceal this weapon but it'll sneak out in snarky remarks if you don't tame it. Say enough, but know when to stop.

Who Once Was Mary: Holy Scripture refers to Mary as "Woman" when Her task as Mediatrix is pointed out (in Genesis, at Cana, at Calvary). Hence the title "The Lady of All Nations" who once was Mary (the humble girl).

"The Lady" is shown on the picture in front of the cross, with which She was so intimately and painfully united. Thus She became Co-Redemptrix, Mediatrix and Advocate. And Her hands are seen radiating graces, redemption and peace for all nations on earth. These gifts She obtained from the cross and She will readily grant them to all who daily recite the prayer in front of the crucifix or facing this picture.
