In today's Gospel we hear how Jesus "makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!" In living the gospel, we must open our ears to hear and recognize all the everyday opportunities for making God's presence known especially to those who are poor and suffering.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can "make God's presence known" to those who are suffering and poor?

"Those Who Didn't Live to be Baptized (Fr. George W. Rutler)

There was a theologian who, when discouraged, would keep repeating to himself, "I have been baptized."

Since the Prince of Lies has discouragement as his chief strategy and purpose, the Rite of Baptism includes an exorcism: an explicit renunciation of Satan, and all his works, and all his empty promises.

Jesus our Encourager did not have to be baptized, for he had no sin to wash away, but by plunging into the waters of the Jordan and rising up, he was setting an example of dying and rising, which in daily life is played out by overcoming obstacles and refuting naysayers. This is modeled in the famous legend of the Scottish king, Robert the Bruce. As Sir Walter Scott told it, the Bruce withdrew to a cave after six defeats in battle, and one rainy day, deeply depressed, he watched a spider weaving a web. Six times the spider's thread broke and six times the spider resumed it's weaving until it succeeded the seventh time. The Bruce rallied and won his great victory at Bannockburn, and the crown of Scotland along with it.

Ever since the legalization of abortion in our country, the Church has resisted the temptation to discouragement in defending innocent life. January 22 of this year the 41st annual March for Life was held in Washington D.C. The March has gone on in weather fair or foul, whether government administrations have been friend or foe. In those years, more than 56 million babies in our country alone have been destroyed in their mother's wombs. We lament the loss of at least 110 million soldiers and civilians worldwide, in the two World Wars, and can barely imagine with what talent and invention so many of them might have endowed the arts and sciences. The same dirge can be intoned for all those babies.

None of those infants lived to be baptized, and they are entrusted to the mercy of God. Our nation now has the lowest birthrate in its history, and may be approaching the demographic winter that is destroying many other countries. The good news is that contending for life year in and year out has raised consciences, and the rate of abortions is at an all time low. So when facing Satan and all his works and all his empty promises, say with good courage: I have been baptized.

Father Mike, the Deacons and Staff of Our Lady of the Mountains invite everyone that has volunteered their time and talents this past year
to any of our parish ministries, to join us for a “Thank You” Dinner in your honor.
