Living God's Word

Isaiah's servant sounds like the wise and wrinkled old one whose selfless devotion helped make his marriage work, one who knowingly and willingly bore the guilt of others. This is also our image of Jesus. Is our image of ourselves like it?

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

El siervo de Isaías es como el anciano sabio y arrugado, cuya entrega abnegada fue lo que ayudo a salvar su matrimonio, o sea que a sabiendas y por propia voluntad cargo con la culpa de otros. Esa es también nuestra imagen de Jesús. Es así también nuestra propia imagen?

Marriage Tip of the Week

Fighting Fair Tip: Hold hands. It may sound corny but try holding hands when discussing something sensitive. It physically reminds you that you may disagree about something, but that you're still connected and committed to each other.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Sunday, November 1 All Saint's Celebration

Today is the feast of St. Luke, the Evangelist. Luke wrote a major portion of the New Testament, a two volume work comprising the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles. In the two books, he shows the parallel between the life of Christ and that of the Church. He is the only Gentile Christian among the Gospel writers. Tradition holds him to be a native of Antioch, and Paul calls him "the beloved physician" (Colossians 4:14). His gospel was probably written between A.D. 70 and 85.

Luke appears in Acts during Paul's second journey, remains at Phillippi for several years until Paul returns from his third journey. He then accompanies Paul to Jerusalem and remains near him when he is imprisoned in Caesarea. During these two years, Luke had time to seek information and interview persons who had known Jesus. He accompanied Paul on the dangerous journey to Rome where he was a faithful companion. "Luke is the only one with me," Paul writes in 2 Timothy 4:11.

Luke wrote as a Gentile for Gentile Christians. His Gospel reveals Luke's expertise in classic Greek style as well as his knowledge of Jewish sources. Luke's Gospel is sometimes called the "Gospel of Universal Salvation." He said Jesus died for all. Jesus is the son of Adam, not just David, and Gentiles are His friends too.
