Living God's Word

Panhandlers are utterly dependent on charity for their daily bread. They have nothing of real value, so they have nothing to lose. Might our self-sufficiency, self-defensiveness, and self-importance blind us to something that their poverty reveals? Like Bartimaeus, we must depend utterly on Jesus for mercy, visión, direction, and and daily bread.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

Los mendigos dependen totalmente de la caridad para su pan de cada día. No poseen nada de verdadero valor, por eso no tienen nada que perder. ¿Pudiera nuestra autosuficiencia, nuestra actitud defensiva y nuestro afán de ser importantes cegarnos a lo que la pobreza de ellos quiere revelarnos? Al igual que Barimeo debemos de depender totalmente de Jesus, de su misericordia, su visión, su dirección, y su pan de cada día.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Sunday, November 1 All Saint's Celebration

This week on October 28 we celebrate the Feast Day of two little known apostles. The first is St. Jude. He is called Jude by John and by Luke. Matthew and Mark call him Thaddeus. He is not mentioned elsewhere in the Gospels except where all the apostles are mentioned. Scholars hold that he is not the author of the Letter of Jude. Actually, Jude had the same name as Judas Iscariot. Evidently, because of the disgrace of that name it was shortened to Jude in English.

Simon is mentioned on all four lists of the apostles. On two of them he is called "the zealot." The Zealots were a Jewish sect that represented an extreme of Jewish nationalism. For them, the messianic promise of the Old Testament meant that the Jews were to be a free and independent nation. God alone was their King, and any payment of taxes to the Romans, the very domination of the Romans, was a blasphemy against God. No doubt some of the Zealots were the spiritual heirs of the Maccabees, carrying on their ideals of religion and independence. Many were the counterparts of modern terrorists. They raided and killed, attacking both foreigners and "collaborating" Jews. They were chiefly responsible for the rebellion against Rome which ended in the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

As in the case of all the apostles except for Peter, James and John we are faced with men who are really unknown, and we are struck by the fact that their holiness is simply a gift from Christ. He chose some unlikely people: a former Zealot, a tax collector, an impetuous fisherman and a man named Judas Iscariot.

It is a reminder we need to receive often. Holiness does not depend on human merit, culture, personality, effort or achievement. It is entirely God's creation and gift.

Happy 25th Anniversary Our Lady of the Mountains

Next July will mark our 25th year as a parish.

As you all know, we are producing a historical photo album for this celebration.

Included in the album will be a historical pictorial narrative and a photo album of current parishoners.

We are asking for your support, specifically, please consider a congratulatory 1/8 page sized message in your own words. The cost for this is $125.00. For arrangements, call one of our 25th anniversary committee members.
