Matthew 5:2

Living God's Word

Other than Jesus, I've never know of anyone who harvested all eight of the Beatitudes with abundance. Most of us find hints of one or two at best. It soes seem enough, however, to start transforming us into All Saints.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

A no ser Jesus, nunca he conodio a ninguna otra persona que cultivara las ocho bien-aventuranzas abundantemente. La mayoría de nosotros encontramos apenas esbozos de una o dos de ellas, a lo mas. Esto, sin embargo, parece ser suficiente como para empezar a transformarnos y llegar a formar parte de la lista de Todos los Santos.

The Diocese of Tucson is hosting the Catholic Men's Conference on Saturday, November 21st from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm with registration at 8:00 am. It will be held at ST. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, 8650 N. Shannon Road in Tucson. This will be an opportunity for men throughout the diocese to come together as men of faith. All single men, husbands, fathers, grandfathers, sons and grandsons are invited. My hope as your Pastor is that as many men as possible from the parish will register. There is a group of outstanding speakers from around the country who will make presentations to help our men on their own Mission for God in the world today. You can register in advance online at www.tucsonmensconference.org or at the door. ## DATES TO REMEMBER

Sunday, November 29 No classes, Thanksgiving holiday

The earliest certain observance of a feast in honor of all the saints is an early fourth – century commemoration of “all the martyrs.” In the early seventh century, after successive waves of invaders plundered the catacombs, Pope Boniface IV gathered up some 28 wagonloads of bones and reinterred them beneath the Pantheon, a Roman temple dedicated to all the gods. The pope rededicated the shrine as a Christian Church. According to Bede, the pope intended “that the memory of all the saints might in the future be honored in the place which had formerly been dedicated to the worship not of gods but of demons.” (On the Calculation of Time)

But the rededication of the Pantheon, like the earlier commemoration of all the martyrs, occurred in May. Many Eastern churches still honor all the saints in the spring, either during the Easter season or immediately after Pentecost.

How the Western church came to celebrate this feast in November is a puzzle to historians. The Anglo-Saxon theologian Alcuin observed the feast on November 1 in 800, as did his friend Arno, Bishop of Salzburg. Rome finally adopted that date in the ninth century.

This feast first honored martyrs. Later, when Christians were free to worship according to their conscience, the church acknowledged other paths to sanctity. In the early centuries the only criterion was popular acclaim, even when the bishop's approval became the final step in placing a commemoration on the calendar. The first papal canonization occurred in 993; the lengthy process now required to prove extraordinary sanctity took form in the last 500 years. Today's feast honors the obscure as well as the famous - the saints each of us has known.
