THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 15, 2015

The wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice
shall be like the stars forever.

Daniel 12:3

Living God's Word

No one likes transitions. They're filled with pain, and they're unsettling and confusing and demand that we surrender control. But that is when God comes. At such moments a great peace rushes in and faith in God is renewed simply because faith in ourselves does in and not work anymore. At that point we come face to face with God.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

A nadie nos gustan las transiciones, pues están llenas de dolor. Además, son perturbadoras y confusas, y exigen que cedamos nuestro control. Pero es ahí que entonces viene Dios. En esos momentos una gran paz nos llega como de súbito y la fe en Dios se renueva sencillamente porque la fe en nosotros mismos ya no funciona. En ese momento nos encontramos cara a cara con Dios.

Marriage Tip of the Week

November is a time to be thankful for all the gifts that we have, but it is also a time to give back. Is there a charity that you and your spouse could volunteer for this month?

Together we are saving Catholic Education! Arizona's Catholic Tuition Support Organization (CTSO) wants to "thank" all the parishioners that have supported Catholic education and ask you to renew your support to the students in our Catholic Schools through CTSO.

35 Weeks!

The countdown begins to our 25th Parish Anniversary. We became a parish from a mission on July 16, 1991.

Noviembre es un tiempo para agradecer todos los dones que tenemos, pero también es un tiempo para dar de vuelta. ¿Hay alguna organización de caridad que usted y su cónyuge podrían ser voluntarios por este mes?

The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. When we live in conformity to the Word, hearing Jesus' words and living them out, the future holds no fear for us.

As you give your gift to St. Vincent de Paul, know that you are hearing the words of Jesus and living them out.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Sunday, November 29 No classes, Thanksgiving holiday

Today we celebrate the feast of St. Albert the Great. He was the eldest son of a powerful and wealthy German lord of military rank. Albert was educated in the liberal arts. Despite encountering fierce family opposition; Albert entered the Dominican order. Students of philosophy know him as the teacher of St. Thomas Aquinas.

Because St. Albert was a man of varied interests he set out to write a compendium of all knowledge: natural science, logic, rhetoric, mathematics, astronomy, ethics, economics, politics, and metaphysics. This took him twenty years to complete. "Our intention," he said, "is to make all the aforesaid parts of knowledge intelligible to the Latins." He achieved his goal while serving as an educator at Paris and Cologne, as Dominican provincial, and even as Bishop of Regensburg for a short time. He defended the mendicant orders and preached a crusade in Germany and Bohemia.

"There are some who desire knowledge merely for its own sake; and that is shameful curiosity. And there are others who desire to know, in order that they themselves may be known; and that is vanity, disgraceful too. Others again, desire knowledge in order to acquire money or preferment by it; that too is a discreditable quest. But there are also some who desire knowledge, that they may build up the souls of others with it and that is charity. Others, again, desire it that they may themselves be built up thereby; and that is prudence. Of all these types, only the last two put knowledge to the right use." (St. Bernard, Sermon on the Canticle of Canticles).

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Catholic Campaign for Human Development Annual Collection
November 21-22, 2015

TO the CLERGY, RELIGIOUS, and LAITY of the DIOCESE of TUCSON

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) is the domestic anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ "... to bring good news to the poor ... release to captives ... sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

For the past 41 years, CCHD has been dedicated to breaking the cycle of poverty by funding community programs that encourage independence. Through organizational membership and education, CCHD funds are also used to provide grassroots individuals living in poverty with the skills and resources needed to have a voice in bringing about systemic changes in matters related to poverty and justice.

In our own Diocese of Tucson, CCHD funds have been a major support to Pima, Pinal and Yuma County Interfaith groups in their efforts to support the following services: job opportunities; ESL classes for adults; increased funding for education; care for immigrants and refugees; free clinic services; leadership training for people living in poverty. Many Catholic parishes in the Diocese of Tucson join with clergy of all denominations in being actively supportive of these and many other programs.

Please consider supporting the amazing work of CCHD in any of the following ways:

- Give generously to the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (25% of the collection's proceeds stay here in our own diocese to support the mission of CCHD)
- Pray for the poor and for the work of the Campaign.
- Become involved by contacting the Diocese of Tucson CCHD director (520-838-2060)
- Learn more about the issues of poverty and injustice and the work of CCHD. Visit www.usccb.org and www.povertyusa.org.

Never tire of working for a more just world, marked by greater solidarity.
(Pope Francis, 2013, World Youth Day)

I am very grateful for your help in promoting CCHD's efforts to provide solutions for our widespread poverty issues.
Sincerely yours in Christ,

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

La Colecta del 2015 para la Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano
21-22 de Noviembre del 2015

AL CLERO, LOS RELIGIOSOS Y LOS LAICOS DE LA DIÓCESIS DE TUCSON

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano (CCHD por sus siglas en inglés) es el programa contra la pobreza interna de los Obispos Católicos de Estados Unidos, trabajando para llevar a cabo la misión de Jesucristo "... para dar buenas nuevas a los pobres ... liberar a los cautivos ... a la vista los ciegos, y dejar ir libres a los oprimidos. " (Lucas 04:18)

Estos últimos 41 años, La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano ha trabajado para romper el ciclo de la pobreza mediante la financiación de los programas comunitarios que fomentan la independencia. Atraves de organizaciones con miembros y educación, los fondos de La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano también se usan para proveer a individuos viviendo en la pobreza con habilidades y recursos necesarios para que se expresen y se puedan hacer cambios sistemáticos a los asuntos relacionados con la pobreza y la justicia.

En nuestra propia Diócesis, los fondos de La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano, han sido una gran ayuda para los grupos interreligiosos de los condados de Pima, Pinal y Yuma en sus esfuerzos para apoyar los siguientes servicios: oportunidades laborales, clases de inglés como segundo idioma para adultos, más fondos para la educación; cuidados para los migrantes y refugiados; clínicas con servicios gratuitos, capacitación de liderazgo para personas que viven en la pobreza. Muchas parroquias católicas de la Diócesis de Tucson se unen con clero de todas denominaciones para seguir activamente apoyando a estos y muchos otros programas.

Por favor considere apoyar este maravilloso trabajo de La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano en cualquiera de las siguientes maneras.

- Done generosamente a La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano (25% de lo recaudado en esta colecta permanece aquí en nuestra Diócesis de Tucson apoyando la misión de La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano)
- Ore por los que viven en la pobreza y por el trabajo de La Campaña.
- Participe comunicándose con la Directora de La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano de la Diócesis de Tucson (520-838-2060)
- Más información sobre los problemas y la injusticia y del trabajo de La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano. Visite www.usccb.org y www.povertyusa.org

No os canséis de trabajar por un mundo más justo, marcado por mayor solidaridad.

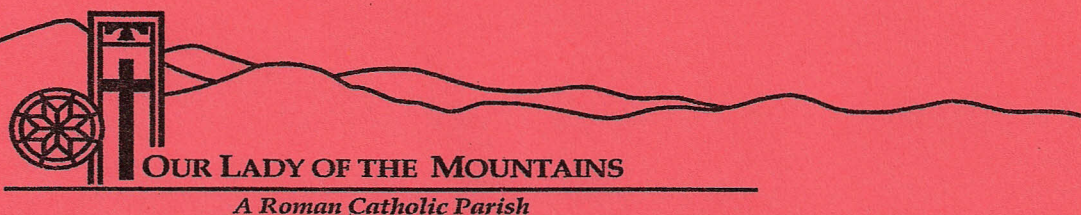

(Papa Francisco, 2013, Día Mundial de Juventud)

Estoy muy agradecido por su apoyo promoviendo los esfuerzos de La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano para proveer soluciones contra los problemas extensos de la pobreza.

Sinceramente unidos en Cristo,

Obispo de Tucson
