Living God's Word

We pray that we might be part of God's people who continue to proclaim Jesus as the One to whom we give our allegiance, and that we show this in the world by working to bring about God's kingdom where mercy and justice, peace and love rule.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

Oramos para que podamos ser parte del pueblo de Dios, que continua proclamando a Jesus como el Unico a quien le entregamos nuestra lealtad y para que podamos mostrarle esto al mundo por medio de nuestras obras que edificuen el reino de Dios donde gobierna la misericordia y la justicia, la paz el amor.

¿Qué es una apreciada característica única de su amada(o)? ¿Se lo ha dicho a su cónyuge? No hace daño en decirlo otra vez. Hágalo hoy.

Today as we celebrate Christ the King, may we open the door of our heart so wide that we may listen to the voice of Jesus calling us to help build his kingdom here on earth. This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring God's love and mercy to families, providing assistance with utilities, food & clothing. God Bless You!

All Saints Catholic School News

The All Saints students are preparing for the holidays. Last week they collected non-perishable food for St. Vincent de Paul that will be distributed to families for Thanksgiving. Students and their families were also asked to reflect on what they are truly grateful for and list one thing a day throughout the month of November. Next month the students will be learning about the true meaning of Christmas and the Nativity Story through a daily interactive activity that the staff has been planning.

We also are going to have some fun in December during the Annual Santa Breakfast. The event will take place on Sunday, December 13th from 8:00 am to 11:00 am in the parish hall. Pre-sale Tickets are on sale in the school office. Join us for breakfast and a visit with Santa!

Sunday, November 29 No classes, Thanksgiving holiday

Christ the King Sunday celebrates the all-embracing authority of Christ as King and Lord of the cosmos. Officially called the Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King, it is celebrated the final Sunday of Ordinary Time.

Pope Pius XI instituted The Feast of Christ the King in 1925 for the universal church in his encyclical Quas Primas. He connected the increasing denial of Christ as King to the rise of secularism. At the time of Quas Primus, many Christians, including Catholics, began to doubt Christ's authority and existence, as well as the Church's power to continue Christ's authority. Pius XI, and the rest of the Christian world, witnessed the rise of non-christian dictatorships in Europe, and saw Catholics being taken in by these earthly leaders. These dictators often attempted to assert authority over the Church. Just as the Feast of Corpus Christi was instituted when devotion to the Eucharist was at a low point, the Feast of Christ The King was instituted during a time when respect for Christ and the Church was waning, when the Feast was needed most.

Pius hoped the feast would have various effects. They were:

1. That nations would see that the Church has the right to freedom, and immunity from the state. (Quas Primus, 32)
2. That leaders and nations would see that they are bound to give respect to Christ. (Quas Primus, 31)
3. That the faithful would gain strength and courage from the celebration of the feast, as we are reminded that Christ must reign in our hearts, minds, wills, and bodies. (Quas Primus, 33)

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

During his visit to Brazil, Pope Francis said, “The measure of the greatness of a society is found in the way it treats those most in need” (World Youth Day, Address, July 25, 2013). With these words, Pope Francis continues to bring our attention back to the poor and our responsibility toward them. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) responds directly to his call by addressing the root causes of poverty in the United States.

Since 1996, Tohono O’odham Community Action (TOCA) has been dedicated to creating a healthy and sustainable community on the Tohono O’odham Nation, located in the Sonoran Desert of Arizona. TOCA’s projects encourage community self-sufficiency and strengthen the roots of O’odham culture. After 1930, O’odham farming began to decline, and the federal government introduced commodity foods into O’odham. This led to a rapid rise of type 2 diabetes in the community.

In an effort to recapture traditional agricultural practices and return to a healthier lifestyle, TOCA established the New Generation of O’odham Farmers program in 2009.

Dedicated to training and empowering community members to pursue careers in sustainable agriculture, the program emerged from experiences on TOCA’s two farms and from local young adults who wanted to learn how to create a livelihood for themselves within their communities. Training new farmers and gardeners is a key part of TOCA’s larger efforts to rebuild a sustainable local food system and a healthy way of life.

CCHD funds programs in communities across the United States. By giving a hand up, rather than a handout, CCHD helps people living in poverty join together to identify problems, make decisions, and find ways to improve their lives and neighborhoods.

Your support helps to end poverty through building solidarity in our communities. Working together, we can reach out to our brothers and sisters living on the periphery of society. Please visit www.povertyusa.org to read more details about CCHD’s efforts to spread Christ’s love by helping to break the cycle of poverty in your community and across the country.

ORIGINS

CCHD was founded in 1970 by the Catholic bishops of the United States as their domestic anti-poverty program. They realized that established charitable services alone were not creating the changes people needed to stay out of poverty. With a goal of creating sustainable systems, the bishops worked to address the policies and structures that perpetuate poverty. CCHD seeks to eliminate poverty by building solidarity in communities.

IMPACT

CCHD brings Catholic social teaching to life by funding community and economic development programs across the United States that help poor and marginalized people join together to make decisions, seek solutions to local problems, and find ways to improve their lives and neighborhoods. Economic development initiatives help create new businesses and jobs. CCHD also provides educational opportunities for Catholics to learn about poverty, stand in solidarity with those affected by it, and reflect on their own responsibility before the great need of others.

INVOLVEMENT

You can make a difference:

1. DONATE. Your generous support, in the parish collection and throughout the year, is vital to CCHD's anti-poverty mission and creates real change.
2. LEARN. CCHD offers awareness programs to learn more about poverty, those affected by it, and our responsibilities as members of the Church. Visit www.povertyusa.org.
3. PRAY for those who give and receive CCHD support, in thanksgiving for generous donors, and to ask support for those struggling.

CCHD is committed to accountability and transparency. We allocate funds to community projects that promote the mission and vision of CCHD while adhering to the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church. Please visit www.usccb.org/cchd to view funding criteria and see a detailed list of our most recent grants. CCHD's primary source of support is the annual collection held in parishes across the United States. Twenty-five percent of each collection supports anti-poverty projects in the local (arch)diocese where the funds are collected.
