Retirement Fund for Religious

Aging religious need your help. In the United States today, there are more than 33,000 senior Catholic sisters, brothers and religious order priests. These religious worked tirelessly in Catholic schools, hospitals, and agencies, usually for little to no pay. As a result, many religious communities lack adequate savings for retirement and eldercare. Your gift to today's collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide medication, nursing care, and more. Please be generous.

Marriage Tip of the Week

Generosity is a virtue, but too often couples overspend around the holidays and rack up credit card debt. Simple gifts are great, as is time spent together (always free!).

31 Weeks!

The countdown begins to our 25th Parish Anniversary. We became a parish from a mission on July 16, 1991.

Consejo Matrimonial de la Semana

Generosidad es una virtud, pero muy a menudo las parejas exceden gastos alrededor de los días de fiesta y acumulan deudas de tarjetas de crédito. Regalos simples son excelentes, como es el tiempo que pasamos juntos (¡siempre gratis!).

In today's Gospel John the Baptist says, "Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise..."

Christmas is a time of love and gift giving...please share your abundance by giving a gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that those who do not have clothes and food can share in the blessings of Christmas.

OLM COUNCIL 10799

All Saints Catholic School News

Don't forget to make your CTSO contribution before the end of the year so you will get your tax credit for 2015. CTSO funds help to offset tuition costs for students who attend Catholic schools. The amount that students receive from CTSO is based on family income. Giving to CTSO can give an individual tax filer a $1067 credit on their taxes and a $2134 for married and joint filers. Corporate contributions are also available. When giving to CTSO you are also able to designate which school will receive your funds or you can have your money go to the general fund. For more information please go to <http://www1.ctso-tucson.org/>. You can also call the All Saints office at 520-378-7012 or the CTSO office at 520-838-2558.

Please join us next Friday, the 18th, for caroling in the Holiday neighborhood. We will have song books, but please bring flashlights. Cocoa and cookies to follow at the home of Amy and Andrew Kjolsrud.

Please bring a plate of cookies to share. Meet at 6:30pm at the club house in Holiday.

Youth group will be having a Christmas party, Sunday the 20th, at the home of Amy and Andrew Kjolsrud, at 3:00pm. Please check your emails for more information.

No youth group Sunday, the 27th of December.

There is a parishioner who would like a ride to Mass. They live near the church on Shoshoni Ave. Either the 7:30am or 9:30am Mass would be preferable. If you attend either Mass are able and willing to pick him up to bring him to Mass it would be greatly appreciated. Please call the Parish office for more information.

DATES TO REMEMBER

December 20 & 27 No classes, Christmas break

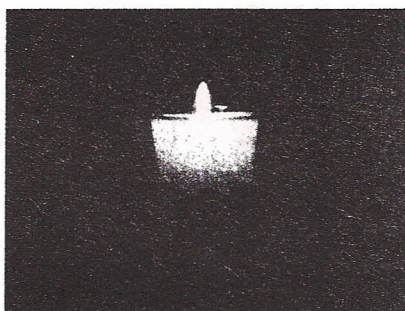

On December 8, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, Pope Francis began the Extraordinary Holy Year of Mercy by opening the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. The Holy Door is only opened for a jubilee year, once every 25 years with the last one being in the year 2000, or as in this case, for an extraordinary jubilee.

But what exactly is mercy? According to Dr. William Mattson, a moral theology professor at the Catholic University of America, "True mercy is action, reaching out to and accompanying people where they are at, even in their brokenness..in order to bring new life."

Fr. Geno Sylva, official for the Pontifical Council for the Promotion of the New Evangelization says, "Mercy is the tangible expression of God's love in the world. I really believe that by recognizing and experiencing how incredibly patient and forgiving God is with each one of us in our imperfections and failings, we can become ever more patient and forgiving of those with whom we live, work, and interact everyday."

"The Holy Father wants the jubilee of mercy to be an opportunity to place the sacrament of God's mercy- which is the sacrament of penance and reconciliation into the central pastoral life of the church," Fr. Sylva said. "We know that, unfortunately, Catholics don't take advantage of the sacrament as much as they should, and so this is an opportunity for us to remind people of God's desire to forgive us and that He is always there to forgive us no matter the sin," said Fr. Sylva.

There will be a Penance Service at Our Lady of the Mountains at 6:30, Monday, December 14.
