Marriage Tip of the Week

Help strengthen marriage by remembering your friends' and family members' wedding anniversaries. A simple "congratulations" by phone, text, email, etc., lets them know you value their commitment and are praying for their marriage.

There are many dishes and bowls that need to be picked up in the upper hall. If you recently brought food for a funeral and haven't picked up your dish, please do so as soon as possible. Thank you.

The 25th Anniversary t-shirts are now in the gift shop. Please stop by to see our selection and get your shirt today.

WINE BOTTLES

We are in need of empty wine bottles. If you have any regular sized wine bottles, please drop them off in the Parish office.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Wednesday, February 10, Ash Wednesday, Fast & Abstinence
Sunday, February 14– No Class, President's Day

Today is the Feast of St. Francis DeSales. Francis' father wanted him to be a lawyer and succeed him as a senator from the province of Savoy in France. Francis, however, wished to be a priest and eventually won his father's consent. At thirty-five years of age he became Bishop of Geneva.

While administering his diocese he continued to preach, hear confessions and catechize the children. He was known to be a man of gentle character which was a great asset to his winning many souls. He practiced his own axiom, "A spoonful of honey attracts more flies than a barrelful of vinegar." He wrote two books "An Introduction to the Devout Life," and "A Treatise on the Love of God."

Francis took seriously the words of Christ, "Learn of me for I am meek and humble of heart." He said himself that it took him twenty years to conquer his quick temper. No one ever knew that he had such a problem, so overflowing with good nature and kindness was his usual manner of acting. His perennial meekness and sunny disposition won for him the title of "Gentleman Saint."

Francis de Sales tells us: "The person who possesses Christian meekness is affectionate and tender towards everyone: he is disposed to forgive and excuse the frailties of others; the goodness of his heart appears in a sweet affability that influences his words and actions, presents every object to his view in the most charitable and pleasing light."
