Marriage Tip of the Week

When things are really busy, take fifteen minutes for each other, even if it's only once a week. Make this time together a top priority.

Dear Fellow Lector,

At the beginning of the year the Liturgy committee recommended a refresher training for all Lectors. All were contacted and 11 participated on Feb. 6.

That leaves 21 of you that must be scheduled for this required refresher – or initial training.

We have 2 dates set up for you;

27 April at 6 pm or 7 May at 8:45 am

Please allow an hour and a half

Before your chosen date you will be sent a reading to prepare.

Please call or email me to let us know which session you will attend.

In the Gospel today, Jesus says "I give you a new commandment: love one another... This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

In the month of April, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting families with food, clothing & utility bills. Thank You!

Please join the St. Vincent de Paul Society as we celebrate the feast day of our founder Blessed Frederic Ozanam Sunday April 24 and The birthday of its patron saint St. Vincent de Paul on April 27. We will have treats in the courtyard.

Sunday, May 1 – Last day of classes for Elementary Religious Education

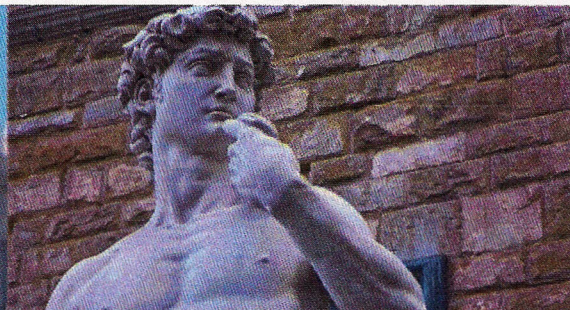

Monday, May 2- Last Confirmation class

For thousands of years God has been using ordinary people to do extraordinary things. God delights in dynamic collaboration with humanity. He doesn't necessarily choose the people who are the best educated or those who are good looking; he doesn't choose people because they are in positions of power and authority; and he doesn't always choose the most eloquent and persuasive. There is one type of person that God has used powerfully over and over again throughout history. It is the prerequisite for mission. God does incredible things with the people who make themselves available to him.

How available are you to God?
