Marriage Tip of the Week

Prioritize time with good friends who can build you up in your vocation of marriage. They are the people to turn to when you hit a rough patch.

DONATIONS REQUESTED: Dynamic Catholic is now offering a reduced book rate for this year's Christmas book distribution program. For two years through the generosity of parishioners, OLM has distributed 1,200 copies of Rediscover Catholicism and Rediscover Jesus at Christmas masses to educate and inspire Catholics in their faith. If you would like to participate in this evangelization, please make a check payable to OLM, subject line Dynamic Catholic books by October 17. Our remaining goal is $600.

ESTATE SALE

A parishioner is having an ongoing estate sale. Household items, furniture, collectibles, telescopes and many more items. Please call 803-7222 anytime between 6am -5pm to set up appointment to view items.

Consejo Matrimonial de la Semana

Da prioridad al tiempo con buenos amigos que puedan edificarte en tu vocación matrimonial. Son las personas a quien recurrir cuando te topas en un tiempo hostil.

In today's Gospel we hear that only one of those healed returned to glorify God and to give thanks to God. It is true, that when we have a grateful heart we know that everything is a gift from God.

To give thanks for all that God has given to you, have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

Fall Break the week of October 10th-14th NO SCHOOL

The school will no longer be accepting Campbell Soup Labels. Campbell's has discontinued the program. We will however still be collecting Box Tops. Thank you for all your support!

COMING SOON!! Have you ever wanted to know your ancestors in faith? Starting with St. Francis of Assisi, we will explore what these people of our Christian faith have to say to us. Bishop Robert Barron, from his Word On Fire ministry, is on a new journey to unlock the truth behind the Catholic Church's most influential people. CATHOLICISM: The Pivotal Players is a multi-part film series that illumines a handful of saints, artists, mystics, and scholars who not only shaped the life of the Church but changed the course of civilization. We will conduct the 5-week series on Sunday mornings from 10:45 am to 1200 noon, beginning 16 October, while the children and youth are in class. Classes are held on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 pm to 8 pm, beginning 19 October, in the Bryerton/Brazaskas Room. Please contact Kathleen Shilson, DRE, on 378-2720, or Mo Pryor, 520-335-6056 if you would like to participate.

Youth Group meets the first and third Sunday of the month, from 3:15-4:45 in the parish hall.

October 30 All Saints Celebration

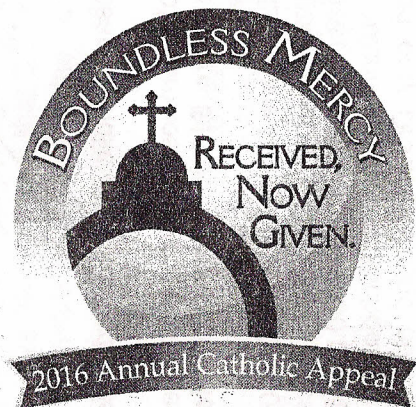

So to continue on from last week; Guy Fawkes Day arrived in the United States with the first English settlers. By the time of the American revolution, Old King James and Guy Fawkes had pretty much been forgotten. Trick or treat, though, was too much fun to give up, so eventually it moved to October 31, the day of the Irish-French masquerade. And in America, trick or treat wasn't limited to Catholics.

The mixture of various immigrant traditions we know as Halloween had become a fixture in the United States by the early 1800's. To this day, it remains unknown in Europe, even in the countries from which some of the traditions originated.

But what about witches? Well, they are one of the last additions. The greeting card industry added them in the late 1800's. Halloween was already "ghoulish," so why not give witches a place on greeting cards? The Halloween card failed (although it has seen a recent resurgence in popularity), but the witches stayed.

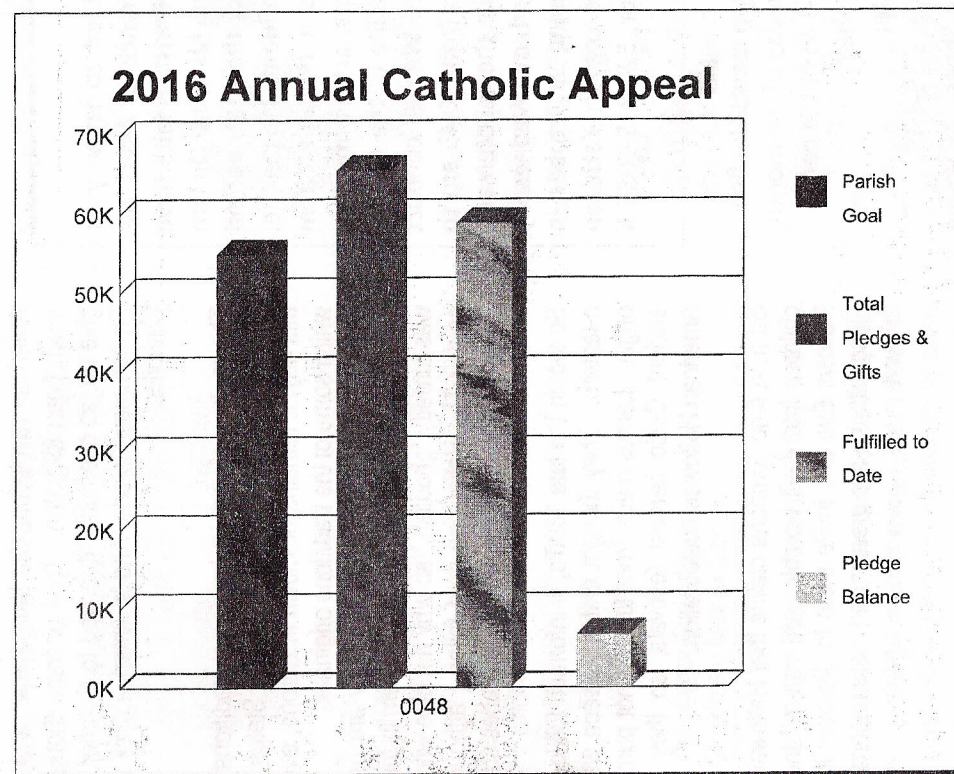

So too, in the late 1800's, ill-informed folklorists introduced the jack-o-lantern. They thought that Halloween was Druidic and pagan in origin. Lamps made from turnips, not pumpkins, had been part of ancient Celtic harvest festivals, so they were translated to the American Halloween celebration.

So next time someone claims that Halloween is a cruel trick to lure children into devil worship, you can tell them the real origin of All Hallows Eve and invite them to discover its Christian significance, along with the two greater and more important Catholic festivals that follow it. (Father Augustine Thompson, O.P.)
