Marriage Tip of the Week

Make a little sacrifice for your spouse today – giving up your cell phone for the evening, choosing not to complain throughout the day, etc.

Bread Volunteer Needed

We are looking for someone to pick up bread once a week at the St. Vincent de Paul Food Bank in town. Please call Jan Ross at 378-1754 for more details.

Are you ready for Advent? The Heavenly Treasurers Gift Shop is ready to help you. We have advent calendars, wreaths, candles and pamphlets with daily prayers and activities. If you have never been in the gift shop or have not visited it in a long time now is a good time to take a look. There are a lot of new items including a nice display of Christmas things. The St Joseph Sunday Missals are in. Pick up your copy today after Mass.

The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. St. Vincent often asked this simple question: What would Jesus Christ do, if he were in my place now?"

Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then give your gift to St. Vincent de Paul so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

Spiritual Work of Mercy: Forgive Offenses Willingly

1. Fr. James Mallon in Beautiful Mercy states that "The key to being free of hurt, resentment, bitterness, and unforgiveness . . . is to cry out to God for mercy for our own sinsWhen we experience this at the depth of our being, it will utterly transform us."
2. Participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation when you cannot forgive as Our Father forgives us. Read the Parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32) How does the father react to the sight of his son in the distance?
3. Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet to help you realize how much mercy God has given you in your own sinfulness.

Consejo Matrimonial de la Semana

November 20

Sunday, November 27 No classes, Thanksgiving holiday

The Price of Conversion

The following is a reflection taken from our continuing study of Bishop Barron's Catholicism: The Pivotal Players. Our study this week has centered on Blessed John Henry Newman.

God has created me to do him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which he has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do his work.

I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it, if I do but keep his commandments.

Therefore, I will trust him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what he is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, he knows what he is about.
