Marriage Tip of the Week

You may not think about your decision to marry as a call from God, but rather as an intense attraction to your beloved. Hmm, isn't that what compelled the apostles to follow Jesus?

2017 marks the one hundredth anniversary of our Lady of Fatima. Our Blessed Virgin told the children of Fatima that "there is no problem, no matter how difficult it is that cannot be resolved by the prayer of the Holy Rosary. With the Holy Rosary, we will save ourselves, we will sanctify ourselves, and we will console Our Lord and obtain the salvation of many souls." Praying this beautiful Rosary as a parish, provides us with an exceptionally powerful weapon against the many evils present in the world today. Join us each Saturday at 4:15 PM prior to the 5 PM Mass.

Thank you to all members who sewed, crocheted and knitted blankets, booties, baby caps etc. We proportionately distributed 130 blankets, 100 baby caps, 35 pair of booties, scarves & gloves to LifeCare, Kindred, VFW & the nursery at Canyon Vista Hospital in December. May God bless you all!

Puede ser que no pienses en tu decisión de casarte como un llamado de Dios, sino como una atracción intensa hacia tu amada(o). Hmm, ¿no es esto lo que obligó a los apóstoles a seguir a Jesús?

In this Sunday's Gospel, we find that Jesus "...proclaimed the good news of the kingdom, and cured the people of every disease and illness."

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Society proclaims the good news of Jesus to those who are suffering.

Children/Youth: What could you do for someone this week that would tell them something about Jesus?

Next Week's Gospel Preparation
4th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Matthew 5:1-12
January 29

DATES TO REMEMBER

February 16: 6:00 pm classes for parents and children wishing to make First Communion /Reconciliation this year.

February 19, 20– No Class, President's Day

The Second year Confirmation students have recently begun a study of the Mass. This study is meant to help them understand what the Mass really is and why we do what we do. It is to be hoped that at the end of the study the teens will have begun to appreciate the Mass and the great gift that it is. Some of what they are studying may be helpful to those of us long past Confirmation. The first lesson asks the students to reflect on the five most important things in their life. They must list these five things. Then they are asked to list the five things that take up the most time in their lives. One of the interesting discoveries here was almost to be expected. Most of the students listed God as the number one most important thing in their lives. Yet under the five things that take up the most time in my life God ranks down there at 4 or 5. Less time than sports or video gaming. Students at this age tend to be quite literal. God takes up very little time because they devote ten minutes a day to prayer.

How about us as adults? If God is most important in our lives how much time a day do we devote to him? Have we learned to incorporate God into all we do? St. Paul tells us to pray always. None of us can or would want to spend 24/7 kneeling in Church but do we remember our morning offering every day? Do we maybe stop for a second every hour and offer up the next hour of work as a prayer for someone or something? When we are faced with the beauty and wonders of God all around do we take a moment to thank and praise God for this moment in time? Are you satisfied that you give God as much time as he is due or could you perhaps improve?
