Marriage Tip of the Week

“Even if we are not called to sell all that we have, we probably are called to not buy everything that it is possible to buy.” (Susan Vogt) What do you expect to spend money on today? Some items are essential but is there one purchase that you can skip?

Fr. Mike will be out of the office from Sept 25 to Oct. 6. During his time away he will be attending The Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. Since the founding of the Order 900 years ago, members have dedicated themselves to personal sanctification, fidelity to the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, and support of the Christian Community in the Holy Land. Knights and Ladies continue this tradition through prayer and pilgrimage, active involvement in their parish and diocese, and a commitment of financial resources to support Catholic institutions in the Holy Land.

On September 27, the Church celebrates the feast of St. Vincent de Paul, who knew that "God had sent him to bring good news to the poor." Together with your gifts, the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul continue his work and mission in our Parish.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to "bring good news to the poor," by assisting families with food, utilities and miscellaneous items.

FROM THE DESK OF THE BISHOP

On September 27, 2017, the Holy Father will launch a Caritas-led campaign, "Share the Journey," which is aimed at increasing support and solidarity for immigrants and refugees. This campaign will be international in scope and in the United States, the campaign will be coordinated by Catholic Charities USA, Catholic Relief Services, and several offices at the USCCB, including Migration and Refugee Services. It will focus on a variety of important topics, including the Church's engagement with immigrants and refugees, catholic social teaching on migration, and the need to address the root causes that drive migration. The Share the Journey campaign is expected to run for a two year period. www.sharejourney.org for more information.

We hope that you, individually as Catholics, and your respective organizations will assist us in highlighting this initiative with your various networks and leadership teams. We are very much looking forward to working with you in an effort to make this venture a success by helping to educate and create a culture of encounter and welcome.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

DATES TO REMEMBER

October 8 & 9 No Classes, Fall Break

Thank you to all the families that joined us at the San Pedro House last Sunday. We prayed together and went as families to search for some of the marvelous things that Our Father God has created...and He made them all from nothing!!! God is Great!! I received positive comments from many and was told the watermelon was excellent. Of course it was.. God made that too!!!

Our next family activity will be the All Saints Party on October 29th. The party will be held in the hall during our regularly scheduled class time that Sunday. Parents are, of course, asked to stay and join us for the fun. If possible children should dress up in a costume of a saint. This gives parents and children time to talk about saints and their role in the church and our lives before the day. The costumes do not have to be elaborate ie... St. Joseph was a carpenter so a work shirt, pair of jeans and a play toolbox would get the point across. St. Damien would be fun with a Hawaiian shirt and a purple ribbon on the shoulders like a confessor's stole. St. Isadore was a farmer so dress like a farmer. Find your saint and be creative!

Then remember Nov. 1 is the Feast of All Saints which is a holy day of obligation or of opportunity as the sisters told us in Catholic School!

What is the solution to the many problems of the world?

At Fatima, Portugal, the Mother of God asked us to pray the Rosary, do penance, and amend our lives.

Did we listen? Not really.

Let's start a new moral crusade.

Take the rosary off the rearview mirror and start praying.

Remember, there will be no peace in our lives or society unless we honor God and obey his laws.

A Potluck reception in the Parish Hall will follow. All are welcome.

Did you know that it was on the 23rd of August, 1617 – four hundred years ago! – that St. Vincent de Paul established the first “Confraternity of Charity” in the Parish of Chatillon-les-Dombes in France? This is how St. Vincent described the event: One Sunday, as I was vesting for Mass, a messenger came to tell me that in an isolated house about a kilometer from there, everyone was sick, leaving no one strong enough to care for the others, and that all of them were in indescribable need. This touched me deeply.” At the announcements after the sermon, St. Vincent put out an appeal for help for this family in such vivid terms that the parishioners were also greatly moved. When he went out that afternoon to visit the family, he met many people who were also on their way to that family or who were coming back from there! “. . .there were so many that it looked like a procession. After he had comforted the family and brought them Communion, he gathered a few people to explore ways to continue offering this kind of help. “I suggested to all these good people whom charity had inspired to visit the sick family that could set themselves one day each, to put something into the stew pot, not only for that family but for those who would follow! And so, a few days later, from this seemingly chance event, was organized the first parish “confraternity of charity,” which became the pattern for a world-wide Lay Apostolate of the Church, numbering some 800,000 members in 140 countries. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul was founded 184 years ago to help impoverished people living in the slums of Paris, France. The primary figure behind the society's founding was Blessed Frederic Ozanam, a French lawyer, author, and professor in the Sorbonne. Membership in the United States totals more than 172,000 in 4,600 communities. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul in the United States provides more than $675 million in tangible and in-kind services, serves more than 14 million people in need each year, and delivers more than 7 million service hours to those in need. Our own Our Lady of the Mountains Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul has 20 – members (called “Vincentians”) and provides a wide variety of services for our neighbors in need, as well as operating Rita’s Pantry . Father Rob Neske is our spiritual Advisor. Our neighbors to the north, St Andrew’s conference operates the Community Food Bank and the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store!

Please join us in celebration the Feast of St. Vincent de Paul and the four hundred years of serving Christ in the needy. Your contributions help today and for future needs.
