Consejo Matrimonial de la Semana

Octubre es el Mes de Respeto a la Vida. Se nos recuerda que valoremos toda la vida humana y la creación, especialmente los no nacidos, los pobres y los vulnerables. Como familia, considere hacer una donación de bienes, tiempo o dinero a un grupo que ayude a los necesitados.

The good news of this Gospel is that all we need to do is let God tend us and bring us to produce good fruit. All we need to do is be faithful; God will take care of the rest.

Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned.

DATES TO REMEMBER

October 8-9 No Classes, Fall Break

October 29 All Saints Celebration

So to continue on from last week; Guy Fawkes Day arrived in the United States with the first English settlers. By the time of the American revolution, Old King James and Guy Fawkes had pretty much been forgotten. Trick or treat, though, was too much fun to give up, so eventually it moved to October 31, the day of the Irish-French masquerade. And in America, trick or treat wasn't limited to Catholics.

The mixture of various immigrant traditions we know as Halloween had become a fixture in the United States by the early 1800's. To this day, it remains unknown in Europe, even in the countries from which some of the traditions originated.

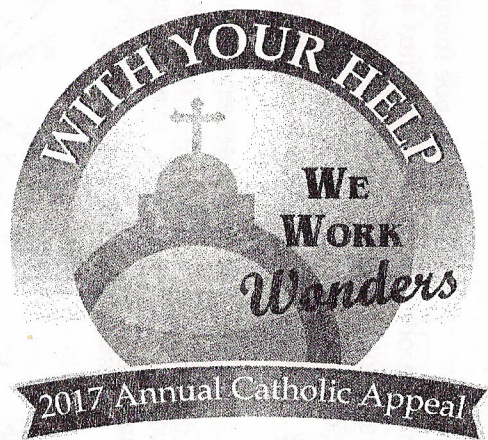

But what about witches? Well, they are one of the last additions. The greeting card industry added them in the late 1800's. Halloween was already "ghoulish," so why not give witches a place on greeting cards? The Halloween card failed (although it has seen a recent resurgence in popularity), but the witches stayed.

So too, in the late 1800's, ill-informed folklorists introduced the jack-o-lantern. They thought that Halloween was Druidic and pagan in origin. Lamps made from turnips, not pumpkins, had been part of ancient Celtic harvest festivals, so they were translated to the American Halloween celebration.

So next time someone claims that Halloween is a cruel trick to lure children into devil worship, you can tell them the real origin of All Hallows Eve and invite them to discover its Christian significance, along with the two greater and more important Catholic festivals that follow it. (Father Augustine Thompson, O.P.)

No classes today or tomorrow. May all of our students have a safe and blessed fall break. Classes will resume on the 15th and the parent class will also be held on the 15th. See you all there. Don't forget the All Saints Party on the 29th at the regular class time. Plans are underway for a fun time for all!
