Today is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and so we can celebrate that we all belong to the holy family of God which makes us brothers and sisters to each other.

At Christmas this year, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring the joy and hope to our "brothers & sisters" who are poor by assisting with food, clothing & help with utility bills. Thank You!

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. This feast celebrates God's promise, alive in the consciousness of Israel since the time of Abraham, and the fulfillment of the promise with the birth of the Savior. The Holy Family, therefore, becomes for us a symbol of fidelity and selfless love that makes us work to increase the care and love we offer our own families.

There are Matthew Kelly books both in English & Spanish available that we handed out for Christmas in the back of church. Please help yourself.

Especially during this season, give them the gift that can change their lives... the gift of a Catholic education.

Your contribution to CTSO simply redirects money you would have to pay in state taxes anyway into scholarships that help deserving students receive an outstanding education they might not be able to afford otherwise.

Your support provides a priceless education that emphasizes excellent teaching, an encouraging learning environment, academic achievement, respect for others, and faith-filled values.

You get the dollar-for-dollar tax credit. They get the priceless gift of a quality education that can change their lives.

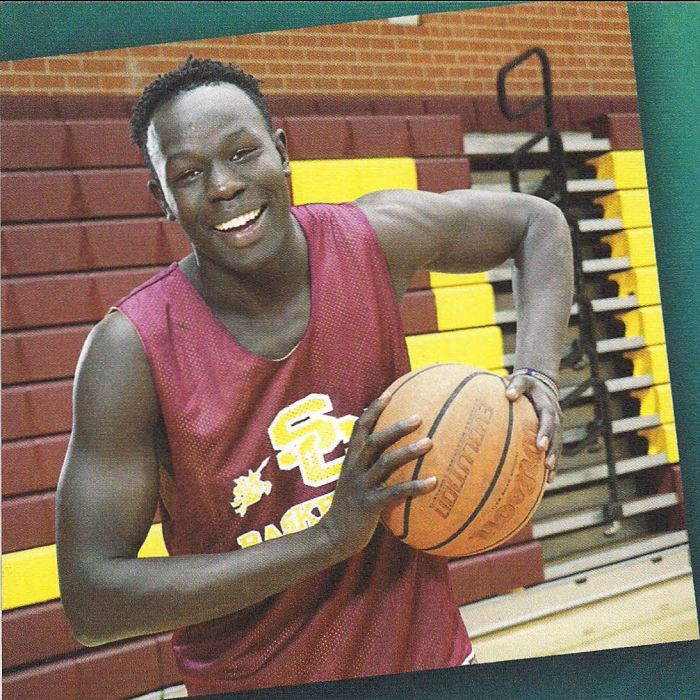

Give to CTSO now.
