SCAMS

It's been recently brought to our attention again that Fr. Mike's name is being used in a scam to either get money or gift cards. Please note that he is NOT asking for anything nor will he unless it's from the pulpit. Please be careful and do not give in to these scams & people. If you do receive anything like this, please report it to the police or ignore it & delete it!

Marriage Tip of the Week

This Easter season, focus on good habits, such as going to Mass during the week, laughing more, and finding ways to be charitable. There is always room to grow.

We are in desperate need of someone to take over the Usher/Greeters Ministry as Deb Scott has officially moved. Please contact the Parish office for more details on what the job entails.

*Dichosos los que
creen sin haber visto*

In the Gospel today, Jesus stands in the midst of us and says; "Peace be with you!" Indeed, the mercy of God centers our heart in peace.

In the month of April, through your donations & gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to help the poor celebrate the peace of Easter, by assisting families with food, clothing & assistance with utility bills. Thank You!
