San Vicente de Paul es conocido por su amor a los pobres. ¿Quiénes son los pobres, los solitarios, los olvidados en tu vida? Tu familia puede ser un regalo de amor para ellos.

GRACIAS!

Gracias a todos los que participaron y apoyaron nuestra cena de carne asada en Septiembre. Recaudamos $2,098.00 después de los gastos para nuestra parroquia.

Gracias de nuevo. ¡Que Dios los bendiga!

In the Gospel today, Zacchaeus accepts our Lord joyfully; and the sign of his acceptance is his open house and his resolution to give half of his goods to the poor.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you also show your acceptance of our Lord by joyfully sharing your goods with your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

Prayer of St. Thomas Merton

My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going.

I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end.

Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think that I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so.

But I believe that the desire to please you does, in fact, please you. And I hope that I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire.

And I know that if I do this, you will lead me by the right road, though I may know nothing about it.

Therefore, will I trust you always, though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death.

I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.

ALL HALLOWS EVE

This year some questions have come from members of our faith communities about the Catholic observance of Halloween and its relationship to the modern cultural celebrations of this day. To be clear, the Church does not oppose the celebration of Halloween, and its roots in Catholic history and liturgy are described briefly below. In the interest of sound faith formation, it is recommended that this history and the important relationship between All Hallows Eve and the proceeding Feast Days be communicated to and reflected upon in our communities of faith.

The Catholic Feast of All Saints Day traces its origins in the Church to the year 609, and it was first celebrated in May. However, in the 9th century, Pope Gregory IV moved the holiday to November 1, so that October 31 would become the celebration of the vigil of the feast – ALL HALLOWS EVE.

Halloween is connected with All Saints Day (11/1) and All Souls Day (11/2). These three days taken together are “Days of the Dead”, a triduum of feasts also call Allhallowtide (Hallow means to honor as holy).

Halloween is the first day of Allhallowtide, the time of the year when the living (Church Militant) honors all the dead in Christ; all the saints in heaven (the Church Triumphant) as well as all holy souls detained in purgatory on their way to heaven (the Church Suffering). It is a beautiful celebration of the Communion of Saints.

Evening vigils with pious celebration on the day before a major feast/solemnity were customary in historical Central Europe; the rhythms of their lives and culture moved with the liturgical calendar.

Halloween is a Catholic holiday and does not have its origins in paganism, the occult, or Satanism, as some have mistakenly asserted.

Dressing up for Halloween comes from the French; Jack-o-lanterns come from the Irish, and the English begged from door to door for “Soul Cakes”, promising to pray for the departed loved ones of those who gave them treats. These ethnic traditions converged in the American melting pot.

It is true that the secular observance of Halloween is comparatively superficial and now largely devoid of its spiritual roots, but that should not stop Catholics from celebrating the great feasts of the Church the Catholic way. It should not stop Catholics from enjoying Halloween as a celebration on the eve of the great feast of All Saints Day.

Halloween is a day to reflect on Christ’s triumph over sin, death and Satan, and to give honor to the saints in heaven, and to pray for the souls of the faithful departed. And then, have fun with joyful feasting and merriment.

VÍSPERA DE TODOS LOS SANTOS

Este año, algunos miembros de nuestras comunidades de fe han preguntado sobre la observancia católica de Halloween y su relación con las celebraciones culturales modernas de este día. Para que quede claro, la Iglesia no se opone a la celebración de Halloween, y a continuación se describen brevemente sus raíces en la historia y la liturgia católicas. En aras de una sólida formación en la fe, se recomienda que en nuestras comunidades de fe se verbalice y reflexione sobre esta historia y la importante relación entre la víspera de todos los santos [All Hallows Eve] y las festividades religiosas que le siguen. En la Iglesia, la festividad católica de Todos los Santos remonta sus orígenes al año 609, y se celebró por primera vez en mayo. Sin embargo, en el siglo IX, el Papa Gregorio IV cambió la festividad al 1 de noviembre, de modo que el 31 de octubre pasaría a ser la celebración de la vigilia de la festividad --- VÍSPERA DE TODOS LOS SANTOS.

Halloween está vinculado al Día de Todos los Santos (1 de noviembre) y el Día de Todos los Fieles Difuntos (2 de noviembre). Estos tres días, en conjunto, son "Días de los Muertos", un triduo de fiestas también llamado el tiempo de todos los santos [Allhallowtide en inglés arcaico (Hallow significa honrar como santo)]

Halloween es el primer día de Allhallowtide, la época del año en que los vivos (la Iglesia militante) honran a todos lo que han muerto en Cristo; todos los santos en el cielo (la Iglesia triunfante), así como todas las benditas almas del purgatorio en camino al cielo (la Iglesia purgante). Es una hermosa celebración de la Comunión de los Santos.

Las vigiliass nocturnas con una celebración piadosa el día antes de una fiesta o solemnidad mayúscula eran habituales en la histórica Europa central; los ritmos de sus vidas y su cultura se adaptaron al calendario litúrgico.

Halloween es una festividad católica y no tiene su origen en el paganismo, el ocultismo o el satanismo, como algunos afirman erróneamente.

La costumbre de disfrazarse para Halloween viene de los franceses; las calabazas con forma de rostro [Jack-o-lanterns] provienen de los irlandeses, y los ingleses iban de puerta en puerta pidiendo "pan de todos los santos [Soul Cakes]", prometiendo a quienes les daban golosinas que rezarían por sus seres queridos ya difuntos. Estas tradiciones étnicas convergieron en el crisol estadounidense.

Es cierto que la celebración secular de Halloween es comparativamente superficial y ahora en gran parte desprovista de sus raíces espirituales, pero eso no debería impedir que los católicos celebren las grandes festividades de la Iglesia al estilo católico; no debe impedir que los católicos disfruten de Halloween como una celebración en la víspera de la gran fiesta del Día de Todos los Santos.

Halloween es un día para reflexionar sobre la victoria de Cristo sobre el pecado, la muerte y satanás, y para honrar a los santos en el cielo y rezar por las almas de los fieles difuntos. Y luego, divertirse con un deleite de alegría y júbilo.
