Esta semana celebramos la Inmaculada Concepción de la Bienaventurada Virgen María, la patrona de nuestro país, los Estados Unidos; y la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Que su fiesta nos recuerde el amor maternal y la protección de María por nosotros y nuestras familias.

RCIA Corner

As we prepare for the coming of the Son of God, into the world, into our hearts, and at the end of time. Let us try to put aside all the busyness and craziness of the season and concentrate on preparing our hearts for the divine presence in us and among us.

For Information about RCIA contact Dcn José

jhnunez@diocesetucson.org.

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us that the good news can be seen, touched, felt and heard through the lives of God's people. We are now charged to take up the ministry of Jesus's, but we can't just ask people to take our word for it; our actions must speak for us.

Since Christmas is a time of love and gift giving, please share in Jesus ministry by giving a gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that those who are poor can know the good news of Jesus.

Did You Know?

Medieval mystery plays employed fir trees decorated with apples to symbolize the Garden of Eden with its tree of life and forbidden fruit. Long after the mystery plays, the Germans remembered the tree, modifying its decoration by adding sacramental wafers along with the apples, to contrast the eating that brought death with the eating that brings life. As the decorations became more elaborate, the symbolism of the fall and redemption faded. Apples were joined by oranges and then brightly colored balls, while wafers became cookies cut in the shape of angels, stars, animals, and flowers.
