"I will ask the Father, and he will give you . . . the Spirit of truth."
— John 14:16-17

THE REASON FOR OUR HOPE

"What is the reason for your hope?" Imagine somebody coming up to you and asking you that question. Not "What are you hoping for?" or "What are you hoping to do?" No, this isn't about our desires for possessions or aspirations for life, it's "Why do you hope?" Peter today tells us that we ought to be ready to give an answer to this question. Truth be told, few of us spend much time thinking about why we hope. Luckily, the scriptures today give us our answers. We hope because Christ suffered for us, in order that we might come to God. We hope because we know that, in the Spirit, God grants us another Advocate through Christ to remain with us always. No matter what we might hope for, whatever we might hope to do, we must always first know and proclaim the reason for our hope: the presence of God in Christ, with us through the power of the Spirit.

Marriage Tip of the Week

Playfulness brings joy to a marriage, but some of us are very serious people. If you're not the naturally playful type, you may have to fake it. Even if you stumble, you can laugh together at your attempts.

DESTELLOS

Todo creyente es llamado a ser, en el mundo de hoy, como un destello de luz.
 —Beato Papa Juan XXIII

“Yo le rogaré al Padre y él les enviará . . . el Espíritu de verdad”.
 — Juan 14:16-17

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us: “If you love me, you will keep my commandments...Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father and I will love him and reveal myself to him.

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and through us into the hearts of those who are poor.

RCIA Corner

This Sunday, the call to love Jesus by following his commandments to love and care for our neighbors is challenging. For this reason, Jesus did not abandon us to carry out this ministry of love without support. He sent his Spirit to abide with us. For more information please contact Deacon José at jhnunez@diocesetucson.org.

SCAM ALERT!

There is a text/email SCAM going around that is asking for gift cards and or money for cancer patients & using Fr.'s name. No priest will ever ask for money or gift cards for any reason. Please if you receive one of these, ignore & delete right away.

REST IN PEACE

It is with great sadness that we say goodbye to our faithful Parish office volunteer John Kimbell. If you called or came in during lunch time, you were greeted by his friendly voice & warm smile. John lost his 6 year battle with lung cancer on Monday, May 11th. Thank you John for your time, talent & treasure to this Parish.

You are now painfree and dancing in heaven with all the angels. God Bless You! Funeral services will be held at a later date once the church is reopened.

Next Week's Gospel Preparation
The Ascension of the Lord, Matthew 28:16-20
May 24

Even in the midst of a pandemic Christ continues to call us to holiness. Our children were scheduled to receive First Reconciliation on March 26 but that became impossible because of the coronavirus. Saturday, May 16 we were able to arrange for 24 children from All Saints and Our Lady of the Mountains Religious Education to celebrate their First Reconciliation. We thank God that the children were able to mark this milestone in their sacramental lives and pray that they and their families will continue to avail themselves of this life-giving sacrament on a regular basis. Glory be to God!
