

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I have called you by your name,
giving you a title,
though you knew me not.

I am the Lord
and there is no other,
there is no God besides me.

SAINTS ISAAC JOGUES (1560-1646) AND JOHN DE BRÉBEUF (1593-1649) AND THEIR COMPANIONS

October 19

Their mission was to New France, but these missionaries found in present-day New York State and the province of Ontario a world wildly different from the homes they left behind. Six Jesuit priests, Fathers Isaac Jogues, John de Brébeuf, Anthony Daniel, Gabriel Lalemant, Charles Garnier, and Noël Chabanel—and Jesuit lay volunteers René Goupil and John LaLande—shared the gospel with the Native Americans they met, in languages they painstakingly learned, and through images they creatively adapted to the indigenous cultures (for example, John de Brébeuf's " 'Twas in the Moon of Wintertime: the Huron Carol"). But their evangelization was caught up in turmoil beyond their control: a smallpox epidemic, battles between French and English trading interests—the traders united only by their willingness to exploit the Native Americans—and conflict among the tribes themselves, Huron, Mohawk, Iroquois. The missionaries' perseverance despite exhausting hardships, their steadfast courage in facing unspeakable tortures, and undaunted love even for those who martyred them, bore fruit, immediately in Kateri Tekakwitha's sanctity, eventually in the Catholicism that still flourishes in the United States and Canada.

Marriage Tip of the Week

In the book of Genesis, we read that "God made them male and female." How do you and your spouse complement each other as man and woman?

The Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) will begin within the next few weeks once all our books have arrived. We invite any adult interested in becoming Catholic or who would like to learn more and deepen their Catholic faith to attend. Do you know someone who would like to become Catholic? Invite them. For more information call the church office at 520-378-2720 or Kathleen at 218 366-1328

Consejo Matrimonial de la Semana

En el libro del Génesis, leemos que "Dios los hizo hombre y mujer". ¿Cómo se complementan tú y tu cónyuge como hombre y mujer?

As we all are faced with the continuing coronavirus pandemic & current problems in the world, we will add the Chaplet of Divine Mercy to our recitation of the parish rosary on Saturdays at 4:15pm prior to the 5:00pm Mass. St. Padre Pio said the rosary is a powerful weapon against the many evils of today. We implore God's mercy and love for us and the whole world.

In the Gospel today Jesus says, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." When God is the center of our lives there is no problem with giving others their due.

Through your gift to St. Vincent de Paul you are helping your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened to know that they belong to God.

"People say that the doctrine of transubstantiation is difficult to believe; I did not believe the doctrine until I was Catholic. I had no difficulty in believing it as soon as I believed that the Catholic Church was the oracle of God, and that she had declared this doctrine to be part of the original revelation. It is difficult, impossible to imagine, I grant; but how is it difficult to believe?" (St. John Henry Newman)

John Henry Newman was canonized a saint this month. He was an Anglican priest before he converted to Catholicism and became a Catholic priest; eventually made a cardinal by Pope Leo XIII.
