

THIRD SUNDAY

OF Advent

As the earth brings forth its plants,
and a garden makes its growth spring up,
so will the Lord God make justice and praise
spring up before all the nations.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Shape of the Mass

In the renewal of the liturgy that followed the Second Vatican Council, the full, conscious, and active participation of the assembly was the primary consideration. By participation, the Council Fathers did not mean just joining in the singing and the spoken responses, but active engagement and prayerful understanding of the rites. They envisioned a transparent liturgy, a worship that spoke so directly to the hearts and minds of the faithful that it would require no explanation at all.

The liturgy itself is the best possible catechesis on the liturgy. What does the liturgy teach us? It shows us the ministry of Jesus continuing in the present. He gathers a community. He calls us to prayer and repentance and praise. He teaches us with the very word of God. He does not send us away empty, but sets before us a marvelous banquet, feeding us with his very body and blood. Then he sends us forth to do what he has done—to give ourselves for others, not just in words, but in deeds. The Mass is the pattern of our Christian lives.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) ~ Our Lady of the Mountains Conference

To the OLM Parish Family:

We are pleased to share the "final tally" of friends served at the Thanksgiving Food Box distribution on 23 November. But more importantly, please accept our grateful and sincere thanks to you ~ the members of the OLM Parish Community.

Distributing food boxes during these unsettled times was a challenge that was met with the generosity of our parish community, who contributed food and monetary donations, along with support from local merchants and several organizations; our hard-working Knights of Columbus; All Saints School, and to a supportive Father Mike and the OLM office staff. A true community effort that made this year's event possible.

TALLY: We were blessed to serve 117 families!

Our sincerest wish to all of you for a Christmas season and a New Year filled with renewed hope, good health, faith, and love.
