As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise.

Your gift to St. Vincent de Paul will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them.

OLM PRAYER GARDEN

To develop the Prayer Garden; the prayer, time, work and money of our Parish community was involved. Initially the Knights of Columbus constructed a wall. Donations poured in for the memorial plaques on that wall. Professional artists and some challenged to do art work different from their regular medium all said "Yes" to produce the mysteries of the rosary and the story of St. Juan Diego. Children, teens and adults learned how to form the green clay tiles representing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. Parish volunteers keep the garden beautiful. As you enter the Prayer Garden you see a statue of Jesus and Mary. That was chosen because Our Lady is the patroness of our parish who saw a need and asked her son for that first miracle.

Come to the Prayer Garden and sit under the beautiful pergula to pray in quietness, beauty & joy. Remember to pray for the past, present & future parishioners as well as our priests who serve us.

Attention all USHERS, EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS, LECTORS AND ALTAR SERVERS

With the relaxation of Covid protocols we welcome all those who wish to resume duties to please call the parish office, see Fr. Mike or contact the Ministry Leader. We are currently in need of a ministry leader for the Ushers. Please contact the Parish office if you are interested. We thank you all for giving your time, talent & treasure.

GOSPELS AND QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, Matthew 28:16-20

Signs of God's Love

May 30

Adults: What signs of God's love have you witnessed in your life?

Children/Youth: How can you be a sign of God's love to others this week?

Memory, Understanding, and Will

St. Augustine, one of the most important Fathers of the Church, wrote a great deal on the doctrine of the Trinity. In one of his sermons, he wrestled with the passage in Scripture recounting Jesus' Baptism. He wondered how it was possible that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit could be inseparable, while, in this passage, they do not seem unified, as all of their works are clearly separated.

St. Augustine searches for an analogy to help his listeners comprehend the oneness of the Trinity but the distinct works of each Person (though it's important to remember that all Trinitarian analogies fall short). He talks about the mind's ability to remember, to understand, and to will.

When you remember a story, you had to have understood the words that were being said and you need to will yourself to recall that story. When you seek to understand a concept, you have to remember what the concept is and will yourself to understand it. When you will or desire something, you must understand what you are willing, and you must remember what you are willing. Thus, while a certain act like remembering might be more visible or tangible, it necessarily depends on understanding and will. As these acts can never be fully separated, so too with God: "The divine Persons are also inseparable in what they do. But within the single divine operation each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, especially in the divine missions of the Son's Incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit" (CCC, 267). While we might see the work of the Father, Son, or Holy Spirit more distinctly in particular situations (the Father in Creation, the Son on the Cross, the Spirit at Pentecost), you can never divorce one from the other: "Because it does not divide the divine unity, the real distinction of the Persons from one another resides solely in the relationships which relate them to one another" (CCC, 255). The Father reveals the Son, the Son reveals the Father, and the Father and the Son are revealed by the Holy Spirit. Though the mystery is difficult to comprehend, and requires an act of faith to believe it, we should be thankful that we live in an age where we have concrete doctrine (or teaching) on the Trinity. There was a time when many theologians argued over what we should or should not believe—whether or not Jesus and the Holy Spirit were divine, whether or not the Holy Spirit could be included in the Trinity . . . and so on. It sounds exhausting! I'm just grateful that now, rather than having to formulate a teaching, we have the privilege of trying to understand one that has been revealed to us by God and developed by many holy people over many years.
