Marriage Tip of the Week

"We walk by faith, not by sight." (2 Cor 5:7)

How is your faith these days? St. Paul reminds us that at the heart of the Christian faith is trust, even when we can't see the road ahead. Pray with your spouse for that kind of faith today.

Today is the Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection that supports the work of the Universal Church, including the work of the Holy See and the charitable works of Pope Francis. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a sign of mercy to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.peterspence.va/en.html

"Caminamos por fe, no por vista." (2 Cor 5: 7) ¿Cómo está tu fe en estos días? San Pablo nos recuerda que en el corazón de la fe cristiana está la confianza, incluso cuando no podemos ver el camino por delante. Ore con su cónyuge hoy por ese tipo de fe.

Hoy es la Colección Peter's Pence, una colección mundial que apoya el trabajo de la Iglesia Universal, incluido el trabajo de la Santa Sede y las obras de caridad del Papa Francisco. Aprovecha esta oportunidad para unirse al Papa Francisco y ser un signo de misericordia para nuestros hermanos y hermanas que sufren. Por favor sea generoso. In the Gospel today, Jesus calms the sea and then asks the disciples "Why are you lacking in faith?" In our life's journey, we also must learn to believe in God's presence and to trust in his care.

This month through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to continue showing God's love and care to others by assisting families with utilities, food & clothing. Thank You!

Rich in Love

We are giving thanks to the Lord because we are able to again have Religious Education Classes at Our Lady of the Mountains. The classes will be held during the week instead of on Sundays as has been done here in the past. Classes will begin on Wednesday, August 18.

Classes for grades 1-8 will be held on Wednesday evenings from 5:30 pm until 6:15. Students in second grade, or older if they have not already done so, will be preparing for First Reconciliation and First Communion.

Registration for classes begins Monday, June 14. Registration forms are available in the parish office and may be picked up during regular office hours.

Confirmation classes for students in grade 9 or older will be resuming on Monday evenings from 5:30 -6:15 beginning August 16. Registration forms for Confirmation are also available in the parish office during regular office hours.

RCIA classes will begin Monday, Sept. 13th from 6:30pm to 7:30pm in the church meeting rooms. These classes are for any adult baptized Catholic in need of Confession, First Communion & Confirmation and for any adult wanting to convert to the Catholic faith.

The opening of classes also brings with it the opportunity for service. We are in need of CATECHISTS for grade 1, grade 2, grade 3, grade 4, a combined grade 5/6 and a combined grade 7/8. Please pray about this opportunity to assist in our children's faith formation. A love for Jesus and a desire to assist our children in developing their own personal relationship with Jesus are the primary requirements. Materials and training will be provided. If the Holy Spirit is calling you please call the parish office to express your interest. 520 378-2720. You will need to complete the Diocesan Compliance program before being allowed to teach. Please call Christine in the Parish office.

WHO IS THIS?

Though we re-enter Ordinary Time already knowing that Jesus is the Son of God (see the centurion's words at the end of the Palm Sunday Passion reading from Mark's Gospel), the long succession of Sundays confronts us again with the question that each Christian community, each individual Christian faces continually throughout life: "Who is this?" (Mark 4:41), and prompts an "examination of conscience" regarding the practical consequences of our response. This year's Gospel readings from Mark suggest that we find our answer in the cross and in the Eucharist. Today's stark challenge of Jesus' call to discipleship is, thankfully, balanced by the comfort we can take in relating—perhaps only too well—to the disciples' fears. Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, don't we all, from time to time during our lives' "ordinary time," experience Jesus' "real absence"?

SEA AND WIND

As always in Ordinary Time, today's Old Testament sets the stage for the Gospel. God, who in Jesus will "rebuke the wind" and "command the sea to be still" (Mark 4:39), "addresses Job out of the storm" (Job 38:1), speaking to the turmoil in Job's heart, calling to mind the primal chaos of creation's untamed sea, reminding Job that God's mighty word then was enough to command order and bring forth life. In today's Gospel, the disciples' fear, even near despair, takes center stage. Are any of us strangers to such emotions? Squall-force winds buffet their boat, waves break over it, and Jesus might as well not be there. Mark's account is especially grim. Alone among the evangelists, he tells us that Jesus is in the stern, the very back of the boat, not just asleep—sound asleep! Only Mark adds the detail, "on a cushion" (4:38).

AWAKEN CHRIST

Though we welcome Jesus in Word and Eucharist Sunday after Sunday, haven't we all, from time to time, experienced Jesus' "real absence"? This personal application should comfort us, as it has generations of disciples before us. Though the "boat" is, primarily, a symbol of the Church, never forsaken by Christ, carried safely across time's stormy waters, Saint Augustine preaching on this very Gospel sixteen hundred years ago noted that, since each of us is a temple of God, each one's heart is a sailing boat. Consider any temptation, says Augustine, as "the wind, the surging of the sea," and do what the disciples did: wake up Christ, "the sleeper in your heart," by recalling his words and commands. Then be like the wind and the sea: "The sea obeys him, the wind is still." Whenever emotions make our hearts turbulent, whenever Christ seems absent or at least asleep, "let us not despair but awaken Christ, so that we may sail in quiet waters, and reach at last our
