The Preface: Thanksgiving

The preface of the Mass has been called "a poem, the cry of joy and recognition, the song of the world discovering its salvation . . . the certitude of faith making hope spring forth" (Philippe Béguerie, quoted in The Mass, Lucien Deiss, The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, MN, 1992, p. 70). The preface takes up the last words of the dialogue, and expresses briefly and simply why we are grateful, why it is right and just to give thanks and praise to God. On feast days, the preface sings of the specific mystery or saint we celebrate; in Ordinary Time, the Sunday and weekday prefaces express our gratitude for God's gift of the Son, Jesus Christ, in whom we have redemption and newness of life. The prefaces offer a succinct account of what God has done for us in Christ; they express the mystery of faith, always relating it to us, to our lives. "By his birth we are reborn," we hear in Preface IV for Sundays in Ordinary Time. "By his suffering we are freed from sin. By his rising from the dead we rise to everlasting life." Yes, we have cause to give God thanks and praise.

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” (Mk 6:31) Don't forget to take some time for yourselves to rest. Take a vacation, or just an hour, to be quiet and still. Try to turn off your phone so that you can focus on relaxing.

Are You Called to Carmel?

We in the Mary, Queen and Beauty of Carmel Discalced Carmelite Secular Community invite you to “come and see.” We meet the second Saturday of the month at St. Andrew's from 9:00 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. We attend Mass and observe a half hour of silent prayer and adoration; we pray the Liturgy of the Hours and participate in Lectio Divina; we discuss topics related to our Carmelite vocation; we listen to a conference; we have lunch; and we attend a class. We study the works of St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, and other Carmelite writers. We also hold a yearly retreat. Under the protection of Mary, Queen and Beauty of Carmel, we grow in our vocation to be love in the heart of the Church. For more information, please contact Nancy Goldcamp at 458-3923.

In today's Gospel the disciples ask for a sign like the bread Moses had received in the desert. Jesus tells them that He is the true Bread of Life.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you enable the members of the Society to bring bread to the hungry as a sign of God's love.
