FEAST OF FAITH

Procession

"The Mass is ended, go in peace." At the beginning of Mass, the ministers entered in solemn procession, an emblem of the diverse community that comes together around the altar each week to celebrate the Eucharist. As Mass ends, another procession forms, and the ministers go forth from the church. This concluding procession also acts as an emblem of the entire assembly, who, nourished by the Eucharist, will now go forth to our scattered homes and places of work to be a transforming leaven of the gospel in the world. At the beginning of Mass, the priest kissed the altar as a sign of greeting, a gesture of reverence for Christ. Now, the priest reverences the altar again, this time in a gesture of farewell. We gather our things and go forth as we entered—but not quite. Through our celebration of the Eucharist, we have renewed our commitment to service of Christ our King, and we go forth nourished, strengthened, renewed—changed.

Cochise County Critical Need: Children in Out of Home Care Need Foster Parents

There are many children that have been removed from their homes through absolutely no fault of their own. Unfortunately, there are very few foster homes in Cochise County to accommodate them.

How does this impact?

Very few children that are removed from their homes in Cochise County get to stay here. They are instead transported to “first available,” locations all over the state. This increases the trauma that child feels and makes reunification efforts complicated and more difficult.

Who can be a foster parent?

Foster and adoptive parents are normal folks just like yourself. You don't have to be an actual superhero to be a child's hero. There is no singular “ideal” candidate to be a foster parent, having a desire to help the children in our county is a great start.

Does a foster parent receive funds?

Yes, a foster parent receives monthly funds to cover the costs for the children they are supporting.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

- LEARN about those living in poverty.
- ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier.
- CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection.
- PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

We all depend on workers in America's meat-processing plants and animal-feeding operations, who are essential to the food supply chain.

Many of them are immigrants facing language barriers that leave them at a disadvantage when they advocate for safe working conditions, just wages, and fair treatment from employers. The Rural Community Workers Alliance (RCWA) in Missouri helps these essential workers by advocating on their behalf for safe working conditions and by promoting gatherings to address racial divisions in the community as a way to help immigrants and nonimmigrants discover similarities and share their experiences.

The COVID-19 pandemic revealed working conditions at a pork-processing plant that placed workers at risk of infection due to shoulder-to-shoulder work areas and a lack of protective gear. Workers brought their concerns to RCWA and ultimately filed a lawsuit demanding that the company follow health and safety guidelines established by the federal government. Even before the court ruled on the lawsuit, the company took action to protect workers by installing protective barriers, sanitizing stations, providing masks, and conducting temperature checks. When you support CCHD's mission of working on the margins, you help groups such as RCWA advocate for the health and safety of the essential workers that we all depend upon.

CAMPAÑA CATÓLICA PARA EL DESARROLLO HUMANO TRABAJANDO DESDE LA PERIFERIA

- APRENDAN acerca de aquellos que viven en la pobreza.
- ACTÚEN y diseminen información sobre la pobreza compartiendo este folleto.
- CONÉCTENSE con la labor de CCHD brindando su apoyo a la colecta.
- OREN por los beneficiarios de esta colecta.

Todos nosotros dependemos de los trabajadores de las plantas procesadoras de carne y de los procesos de alimentación de animales en los Estados Unidos, lo cual es esencial para la cadena de suministro de alimentos. Muchos de ellos son inmigrantes que enfrentan barreras idiomáticas que los ponen en desventaja cuando abogan por condiciones laborales seguras, por salarios justos y por un trato equitativo de parte de sus empleadores. La Alianza de Trabajadores de la Comunidad Rural, en inglés Rural Community Workers Alliance (RCWA), en Missouri, ayuda a estos trabajadores esenciales abogando, a nombre de ellos, por unas condiciones laborales seguras y fomentando reuniones para abordar las divisiones raciales en la comunidad a fin de ayudar a los inmigrantes y no-inmigrantes a descubrir lo que tienen en común y a compartir sus experiencias.

La pandemia del COVID-19 puso al descubierto unas condiciones laborales en una planta procesadora de carne de cerdo que ponía a los trabajadores en riesgo de infección debido a laborar hombro con hombro en las zonas de trabajo y a la falta de un equipo de protección. Los trabajadores presentaron su preocupación a RCWA y, al final, presentaron una demanda exigiendo que la empresa cumpla con las normas de salud y seguridad establecidas por el gobierno federal. Incluso antes de que el tribunal dictaminara sobre la demanda, la empresa tomó medidas para proteger a los trabajadores instalando barreras protectoras, desinfectando estaciones, proporcionando mascarillas y realizando controles de temperatura. Cuando ustedes apoyan la misión de CCHD de trabajar desde la periferia, ustedes ayudan a grupos como RCWA a abogar por la salud y la seguridad de esos trabajadores esenciales de los cuales todos dependemos.
