Marriage Tip of the Week

Before passing judgment on others (spouse, children, etc.) and becoming easily frustrated by miniscule happenings, ask them for their opinion and perspective on various daily situations.

On Sunday, June 19th in honor of Corpus Christi, we will have one hour Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 2:00pm to 3:00pm in Church. All are invited to come.

Consejo Matrimonial de la Semana

Antes de juzgar a los demás (cónyuge, hijos, etc.) y frustrarse fácilmente por acontecimientos minúsculos, pídeles su opinión y perspectiva sobre diversas situaciones cotidianas.

Si se ha mudado o ha cambiado su número de teléfono, llame a la oficina parroquial para que podamos tener la información correcta en nuestra lista. ¡Gracias!

Columbario Madre Teresa

Si está considerando la planificación previa o necesita un nicho como lugar de descanso final, considere nuestro columbario. Comuníquese con Donna en la oficina parroquial al 378-2720.

Como recordatorio, cumpla con las reglas diocesanas establecidas. No se permiten artículos de vidrio, metal o colgantes en un jarrón. Por favor, sea respetuoso al colocar las flores para no invadir otros nichos.

As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help those who are suffering.

OLM Council 10799

Grand Knight ~ Dale Berry 678-5617

Brothers, we are still observing the rules of our diocese and our state council guidelines. Continue to be healthy and safe. As the coronavirus pandemic continues, our duty is to lead our families, protect our parishes, and serve our communities, remembering always that where there's a need, there's a Knight.

Council FACEBOOK. You are invited to come and see what your Knights of Columbus are up to. Find us on FACEBOOK: OLM Knights of Columbus Council 10799.

A thank you is extended to all of our Knights for their support of Project Graduation on 26-27 May. We also extend a thank you to our OLM Council 10799's Scholarship recipients: Cecelia Kjolsrud, Sebastian Ramsey and Brian Davis. A welcome is also extended to our newest Knight, Kevin Bouchard and his family after his attendance at the CUF on 2 Jun.

All Saints Catholic School School News!

Open enrollment is ongoing for the new school year. Opening in all grades. Please contact the school at 378-7012 to register. There are also CTSO scholarships available so please fill out an application. Thank you for supporting our school.

"With the school season ending, parents have a great opportunity to expand on what their children learned during the school year by engaging in some "good old fashioned" talks! Encourage your kids to discuss what subjects they enjoyed most as well as those classes they least enjoyed and why. All of these will open newer areas of discussion that will pay tremendous dividends when they face tougher challenges such as peer pressure, difficult subjects and other issues. Sierra Vista and surrounding cities offer so many cultural, historic, and research opportunities for children to grow their intellect."

A message from Fr. Amal & Zambia

The construction of the new school in Zambia has begun!

Thank you to all who donated to make this possible.

God bless you all. More photos to follow in the future.

Memory, Understanding, and Will

St. Augustine, one of the most important Fathers of the Church, wrote a great deal on the doctrine of the Trinity. In one of his sermons, he wrestled with the passage in Scripture recounting Jesus' Baptism. He wondered how it was possible that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit could be inseparable, while, in this passage, they do not seem unified, as all of their works are clearly separated.

St. Augustine searches for an analogy to help his listeners comprehend the oneness of the Trinity but the distinct works of each Person (though it's important to remember that all Trinitarian analogies fall short). He talks about the mind's ability to remember, to understand, and to will.

When you remember a story, you had to have understood the words that were being said and you need to will yourself to recall that story.

When you seek to understand a concept, you have to remember what the concept is and will yourself to understand it.

When you will or desire something, you must understand what you are willing, and you must remember what you are willing.

Thus, while a certain act like remembering might be more visible or tangible, it necessarily depends on understanding and will.

As these acts can never be fully separated, so too with God: "The divine Persons are also inseparable in what they do. But within the single divine operation each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, especially in the divine missions of the Son's Incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit" (CCC, 267). While we might see the work of the Father, Son, or Holy Spirit more distinctly in particular situations (the Father in Creation, the Son on the Cross, the Spirit at Pentecost), you can never divorce one from the other: "Because it does not divide the divine unity, the real distinction of the Persons from one another resides solely in the relationships which relate them to one another" (CCC, 255). The Father reveals the Son, the Son reveals the Father, and the Father and the Son are revealed by the Holy Spirit.

Though the mystery is difficult to comprehend, and requires an act of faith to believe it, we should be thankful that we live in an age where we have concrete doctrine (or teaching) on the Trinity. There was a time when many theologians argued over what we should or should not believe—whether or not Jesus and the Holy Spirit were divine, whether or not the Holy Spirit could be included in the Trinity . . . and so on. It sounds exhausting! I'm just grateful that now, rather than having to formulate a teaching, we have the privilege of trying to understand one that has been revealed to us by God and developed by many holy people over many years.
