In the Gospel today we hear Jesus say to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send laborers for his harvest."

Have you considered answering the call to join St. Vincent de Paul?

THANK YOU! St Vincent de Paul and those we serve express our gratitude for your abundant donation of food.

We are humbled by your generosity. Our prayer is for you receive that same gift in the Eucharist.

"Call to Serve:" I am a Vincentian

Who are We?

+ Vincentians are a small group of diverse individuals who strive to make a difference in our community by helping our friends and neighbors in need.

+ We are a Catholic lay organization founded in 1833 in France by a young student, Frederic Ozanam, and his six companions. The St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) society, now 190 years old and growing, offers person-to-person service to those in need—in 150 countries throughout the world.

+ Vincentians see "the face of Christ" in those we serve as we schedule home visits to assist with utilities or rent, food pantries, clothing vouchers, and much more.

Why Join?

+ Do you consider yourself a caring, compassionate, and giving person? Are you looking for ways to experience God? If so, come and share your gifts to benefit others!

+ Do you want to make a difference? With each friend and neighbor that is helped, you will find yourself growing in God's love—and a desire to share that love with others.

God is calling you to serve those in need through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you for your past generosity! Through your financial and material donations to SVdP, you have shown a willingness to help others. If you want to know more about what we do, please contact: 520-378-2720, x7133 or stvdvp@olmaz.org

Jesus taught us when he said, "Whatever you do to the least of these my brothers and sisters, you do unto me."

GOSPELS AND QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Matthew 9:36-10:8 The Compassion of Jesus

Adult: What responsibility do you have to the less fortunate, and how actively are you meeting it?

Children and Youth: In what ways can you be generous to others this week?

Next Week's Gospel Preparation 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Matthew 10:26-33 The Reassurance of Faith

June 25

Prayer of a Father

Lord, you have now given me

The privilege of my own family

Help me to accept with humility this sacred gift

May I be gentle and strong.

Knowing right from wrong

May I be firm yet fair

May my wife find in me a companion for life

A true friend, a kind listener

May my children know

Protection, affection, direction

May I open for them the book of knowledge

The secret doorway to adventure

May the child in me always

Accompany the child in them

May I hold them in times of fear

May I dry the eyes that cry soft tears

May we journey together through many years

Lord, may they know you because of me

Your consoling compassionate way

Woven through life each day

May I be silent when I need to hear

Affirm, and gently steer

The anxious heart to a place of calm

Lord, may I be blessed in my children

May my wonder never cease

May I find with self-acceptance

The gift of inner peace

May I rest with quiet contentment

And make this silent prayer

Father of all Fathers

Guide our earthly way. Amen (Dynamic Catholic)
