In this Sunday's Gospel we find the truth that loving God isn't merely a matter of fervor in our hearts, but that it must be expressed in doing good for the sake of others.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to show that we indeed love our neighbors by assisting families with food, clothing, rent & utility bills.

GOSPELS AND QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Matthew 22:34-40

Love of Neighbor

October 29

Adults: In a practical sense, what is one thing that would change in your life if you loved your neighbor as yourself?

Children/Youth: Why is it hard sometimes to love your neighbor?

Next Week's Gospel Preparation

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time, Matthew 23:1-12

November 5

"Be sure that you first preach by the way you live." (St. Charles Borromeo)

"The closer a person approaches God, the less worthy he feels. A painting under candle light shows fewer defects than under the brilliance of the sun; so too the souls who are some distance from God feel more certain of their moral integrity than those who are very close to Him. In the presence of the holiest of creatures, the soul becomes self-accusing and broken-hearted with the weights of its defects. He who loves God is the most burdened with the sense of his own unworthiness."

Venerable Fulton J. Sheen
