"Whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant." (Mk 10:43) Just for fun, see which of you can serve the other more today. Make a game out of it if you wish. "No, let me get the door, the snack, make dinner, etc." "No, honey, you must let me do it."

Dear Parishioners,

Greetings from snowy Minnesota! I am excited to say that my year as a NET missionary has started off well. This year, we have 122 NET missionaries from 38 states and 4 countries! We spent the first six weeks in training in Minnesota and Wisconsin. We were able to grow closer to the Lord and learn how to minister to the youth we would encounter. In mid-September, we celebrated a commissioning Mass with the Archbishop and hit the road the next day! I was assigned to Team 1, which is the Home Team, and we travel within Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Iowa. So far, my team has facilitated about 40 youth retreats and each one has been a blessing with the many young people we encounter and help grow closer to the Lord through relational ministry. Please continue to keep me in your prayers and thank you so much for all your support. I am holding you all in prayer and look forward to seeing you over Christmas break.

YOUR MISSIONARY,
Julian Valenzuela NET U.S.A. "Team 1"

The Eucharist is the human being's ongoing, important encounter with God in which the Lord makes himself our food and gives himself to transform us into him. (Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI Angelus, 29, July 2012)

The person who thinks only of himself says only prayers of petition; the one who thinks of his neighbor says prayers of intercession; whoever thinks only of loving and serving God, says prayers of abandonment to God's Will, and this is the prayer of the saints. The price of this prayer is too high for most people, for it demands the displacement of our ego. Many souls want God to do their will; they bring their completed plans and ask Him to rubberstamp them without a change. The petition of the "Our Father" is changed by them to read: "My will be done on earth." It is very difficult for the Eternal to give Himself to those who are interested only in the temporal. The soul who lives on the ego-level or the I-level and refuses to be brought to the Divine-level is like an egg that is kept forever in a place too cool for incubation, so that it is never called upon to live a life outside of the shell of its own incomplete development. Every 'I' is still an embryo of what a person is meant to be. (Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen)

Dear OLM Family & Parishioners,

I want to thank each of you for your prayers during my knee replacement and breast cancer surgeries that occurred late this summer. I have done quite well with rehabbing my knee - almost like new. Although with the cooler weather, I find I have a built-in barometer! My cancer journey is just beginning, but I know it's all of your prayers that keep me focused. I trust in God to take care of this matter. It is all in His hands! Thank you again and God bless you.
