In the Gospel today, Jesus says "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." Indeed, by helping the poor we can "bear much fruit" and we find that with Jesus we can do everything.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show that you are indeed the disciple of Jesus as it will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

All Saints Catholic School School News!

Open enrollment is ongoing for the new school year 2023-2024. Currently we have 101 students enrolled. School Masses are every Thursday at 8:00am. You may also check us out on Facebook! The countdown begins!

OPPORTUNITY FOR TEACHING

If you have a college degree and would like to teach at All Saints Catholic School, please call Ms. Rosado at 520-378-7012.

Another Great Opportunity.

OLM's All Saints Catholic School (ASCS) continues to have challenges finding the funds necessary to acquire and maintain a highly qualified teaching staff. Recent changes in Diocesan policy are making it harder. Although our public school system has the funds and latitude to hire various levels of teachers, our school can only hire degreed certified teachers while offering compensation packages that cannot compete with public offerings. Domestic and foreign Individuals being contacted want more compensation. While ASCS offers teachers appreciable smaller class sizes, more discipline and respect, it does not make up for a smaller salary. Therefore, if any individual would like to have a very lasting, dynamic impact on the quality of education some 100 plus students get at ASCS, they are asked to contact Principal Carmen Rosado at 520-378-7012 as to how they can use God's abundant gifts to help his children. Any size donation will help ASCS acquire qualified teachers while precluding burn-out of those teachers on staff.

Heavenly Treasures Gift Shop

The Gift shop will be open the 2nd and 4th weekends of April. We have a nice selection of 1st Holy Communion items. The gift shop only accepts cash or check. The gift shop is open 15 min before and 15 min after Mass.

A Reflection for Good Shepherd Sunday

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday."

In the Gospel, Jesus states, "I am the good shepherd and I know my sheep and mine know me." This implies a relationship that is much more than moral codes and religious rituals. Jesus is calling us to a deep, intimate relationship, in which we know and hear his voice, and this is reciprocal.

There is an Old Song "Do You Know Your Shepherd's Voice?" This is the chorus:

"Do you know your Shepherd's voice? Are you list'ning with your heart? Have you stopped to hear Him calling? Felt the peace His words impart? As the world shouts it's orders that are easiest to hear won't you draw away and listen to your Shepherd?" (text and music by Susan Lord) Worth contemplating and it's on you tube if you would like to listen.

First Communion will be May 11 at 10:00 am here at Our Lady of the Mountains.

The final religious education class for this school year will be May 8.

Our Lady of the Mountains Parish Survey

Your Parish Council has prepared the following "Activities Survey" to solicit parishioner input regarding past and current OLM activities, events and suggestions that should be considered. I encourage everyone to complete the survey and place it in the designated container at Masses on 11-12 May or email at dparsons@diocesetucson.org If you wish to identify yourself, please do so. It is not required!

Thank You in advance.

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

Jesus calls his followers to love others as he loves them. Inspired by this call, Christians have shown his love through works of mercy such as visiting the sick and imprisoned, educating young people, and praying endlessly for others. Not only are these works of mercy directed to meet material or spiritual needs, but they are ways in which Christ draws people closer to himself.

In the Diocese of Amarillo, the diocesan criminal justice ministry answers Christ's call to visit and serve prisoners and patients confined to hospitals. Since 2004, this ministry has expanded to bring the Eucharist, Sacred Scripture, and prayer to inmates of the seven prisons and two large hospitals in the diocese. This ministry of mercy includes retreats during which inmates can encounter the love of Jesus, heal from past failures and wounds, and develop new hope for the future. Many inmates have experienced spiritual conversions that have inspired them to join formation programs and enter the Catholic Church.

The criminal justice ministry is one of many innovative outreach efforts made by dioceses supported by Catholic Home Missions. Home mission dioceses have small or widely dispersed Catholic populations, large or rugged areas of land that make it difficult to minister to the needs of the people, or economic challenges caused by poverty, unemployment, or natural disasters. Your participation in the annual Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports dioceses throughout the United States and its territories that need financial help to sustain core pastoral services and missions of mercy to those they serve.

For more information about the Catholic home missions, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

What Is a Home Mission Diocese?

Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions.

FORTALECIENDO LA IGLESIA AQUÍ

Jesús llama a sus fieles a amar a los demás, así como Él los ama. Inspirados por este llamado, los cristianos han demostrado su amor mediante de obras de misericordia, como visitar a los enfermos y a los presos, educar a los jóvenes y orar incesantemente por los demás. Estas obras de misericordia no solo responden a sus necesidades materiales y espirituales, sino que son maneras en las cuales Cristo hace que las personas se acerquen más a él.

En la Diócesis de Amarillo, el ministerio diocesano de justicia criminal responde al llamado de Cristo para visitar y servir a los presos y a las personas confinadas en hospitales. Desde el 2004, este ministerio se ha expandido y lleva la Eucaristía, las Sagradas Escrituras y la oración a los presos de las siete prisiones y los dos hospitales grandes en la diócesis. Este ministerio de misericordia incluye retiros en los cuales los presos pueden encontrar al amor de Jesús, sanar de las heridas y fracasos de su pasado y crear una nueva esperanza para el futuro. Muchos de los presos han experimentado conversiones espirituales que los han inspirado a ingresar a programas de formación y unirse a la Iglesia Católica.

El ministerio de justicia criminal es una de muchas e innovadoras labores de extensión que realizan las diócesis financiadas por las Misiones Católicas. Las diócesis misioneras tienen unas poblaciones católicas que están esparcidas en grandes áreas de terrenos escarpados lo que dificulta responder a las necesidades de las personas, también enfrentan desafíos económicos causados por la pobreza, el desempleo, o por desastres naturales. La participación de ustedes en el Llamado anual para las Misiones Católicas apoya a las diócesis en Estados Unidos y sus territorios las cuales necesitan ayuda financiera para mantener los servicios pastorales básicos y las misiones de misericordia para aquellos a quienes sirven.

Para más información acerca de las misiones católicas, visite www.usccb.org/home-missions.

¿Qué es una Diócesis Misionera?

Las diócesis misioneras son aquellas diócesis en los Estados Unidos, sus territorios y antiguos territorios, que no pueden proporcionar los servicios pastorales básicos sin recibir una ayuda externa. Los servicios pastorales básicos incluyen la Misa, los sacramentos, la educación religiosa y la capacitación en el ministerio para sacerdotes, diáconos, religiosas y personas laicas. Casi el 40% de las diócesis en los Estados Unidos y sus territorios, es considerado territorio de diócesis misioneras.
