Vocations

“Why do you notice the splinter in your brother’s eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?” (Luke 6:41)
 Jesus calls us to self-awareness and humility, reminding us to look inward before we judge others. This same humility is essential when discerning how God is calling us to serve. Are you being called to dedicate your life to God’s service as a priest or religious brother or sister? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (520) 838-2531 or via email: sherrera@diocesetucson.org.

In the Gospel today, Jesus uses images in speaking to his disciples: “Can a blind man act as guide to a blind man?...Why look at the speck in your brother’s eye when you miss the plank in your own?... A good tree does not produce decayed fruit...”

It is true that donations come to St. Vincent de Paul because a good person produces goodness from the good in their heart.

Happy Lent!!

The key to understanding the meaning of Lent is Baptism. Preparation for Baptism and for renewing baptismal commitment lies at the heart of the season. Since Vatican II, the Church has reemphasized the baptismal character of Lent.

Why is Baptism so important to understanding Lent? Lent, as a forty-day season, developed in the fourth century. There were 3 sources that came together at that time to make the forty days of Lent that we now know. First, was the ancient paschal fast that began as a two-day observance before Easter but was lengthened to forty days over time. The second was the catechumenate (RCIA) as preparation for Baptism which included an intense period of preparation for the sacraments of initiation to be celebrated at Easter. The third was the Order of Penitents, which sought a second conversion for those who had fallen back into serious sin after Baptism and was modeled after the catechumenate. As the catechumens (those preparing for Baptism) entered their final period of preparation the penitents and the rest of the community accompanied them on their journey and prepared to renew their Baptismal vows at Easter. So, then, Lent is baptismal in its nature. How well are you living out your baptismal vocation as priest, prophet, king? How could you grow in your spiritual life this Lent?

There will be a meeting for parents (not students) of all students preparing for First Reconciliation/First Communion on Wednesday, March 4 at 5:30 pm in the B&B room at the church.
