STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

Close to 40% of dioceses in the United States and its current and former territories are considered “home mission dioceses,” meaning that local conditions such as small, widely dispersed Catholic populations and economic hardships prevent those dioceses from operating their ministries without outside support. For example, with the smallest Catholic population in the 48 continental United States, spread across 66,800 square miles of mountainous terrain and rugged Oregon desert, the Diocese of Baker is so extensive that many parishes are a minimum of 50 miles from each other, and only one town has more than one parish.

Support provided to the diocese from the Catholic Home Missions Appeal covered the cost of having a priest in residence for two rural parishes.

Without this support, more than 400 parishioners would not be able to receive the sacraments regularly. The work of Catholic Home Missions in the diocese extends beyond such basic support to include its family life enhancement program, which helps parishes overcome the isolation that families experienced during the pandemic, isolation that has become an ongoing challenge in rural communities.

You can make a positive impact in the lives of Catholics in the Diocese of Baker and other home mission dioceses across the United States and its current and former territories by supporting the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. For more information about Catholic Home Missions, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

What Is a “Home Mission” Diocese?

Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and lay people. Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home mission dioceses.

Strengthening the Church at Home

FORTALECIENDO LA IGLESIA AQUÍ

Cerca del 40% de las diócesis en los Estados Unidos y sus territorios, tanto presentes como antiguos, es considerado como una “diócesis misionera”, lo que significa que las condiciones del lugar, tal como poblaciones católicas, pequeñas y muy dispersas y dificultades económicas, no les permiten realizar sus ministerios sin una ayuda externa. Por ejemplo, con la población católica más pequeña en los 48 estados continentales del país y extendida a través de 66,800 millas cuadradas en los terrenos montañosos y escarpados del desierto de Oregón, la Diócesis de Baker es tan extensa que muchas parroquias están, como mínimo, a 50 millas de distancia entre ellas y solo uno de los pueblos cuenta con más de una parroquia.

Gracias a los fondos proporcionados por el Llamado para las Misiones Católicas, la diócesis ha podido cubrir los costos para que dos parroquias rurales puedan contar con un sacerdote en residencia. Sin este apoyo, más de 400 feligreses no hubiesen podido recibir los sacramentos en forma regular. La labor de las Misiones Católicas en la diócesis se extiende más allá de un apoyo básico, incluyendo su programa de mejoramiento de la vida familiar, el cual ayuda a las parroquias a sobrellevar el aislamiento que las familias sufrieron durante la pandemia, un aislamiento que se ha convertido en un continuo reto en las comunidades rurales.

Ustedes pueden efectuar un impacto positivo en la vida de católicos en la Diócesis de Baker y en otras misiones católicas en los Estados Unidos y en sus territorios, tanto presentes como antiguos, al brindar su apoyo al Llamado para las Misiones Católicas. Para informarse más acerca de las Misiones Católicas, visiten www.usccb.org/home-missions.

¿Qué es una diócesis misionera”?

Las diócesis misioneras son aquellas diócesis en los Estados Unidos, sus territorios y antiguos territorios que no pueden proporcionar los servicios pastorales básicos sin recibir una ayuda externa. Los servicios pastorales básicos incluyen la Misa, los sacramentos, la educación religiosa y la capacitación en el ministerio para sacerdotes, diáconos, religiosas y personas laicas. Casi el 40% de las diócesis en los Estados Unidos y sus territorios es considerado territorio de diócesis misioneras.
