Agradecimiento y gratitud en Navidad

¡La temporada de las fiestas navideñas ha llegado de nuevo! Alguien en la parroquia comentó que es simplemente el momento de cantar «¡Feliz cumpleaños a Jesús!». Y tiene razón. Esta temporada conmemora el nacimiento del Hijo de Dios para nuestra salvación. Celebramos la Encarnación, el misterio de Dios hecho hombre para que podamos participar de la naturaleza divina. Vemos cuán cercano está nuestro Dios a cada experiencia humana y apreciamos su poder para entrar en nuestras vidas y traer gracia. Al contemplar a María y José, aprendemos a permitir que Dios guíe nuestra historia y la transforme para el bien de todos.

Durante esta celebración, cantamos un cántico nuevo alabando sus maravillosas obras y la alegría de su llegada (Salmo 96). Depositamos nuestra esperanza en el poder de Dios para que cumpla sus promesas y nos llene de alegría (Lucas 2:1-14). Además, aceptamos el don de Dios: su Hijo, Emmanuel, Consejero Admirable, Dios Fuerte, Padre Eterno y Príncipe de Paz, quien no solo nos concede la salvación, sino que también nos inspira a vivir con rectitud hoy.

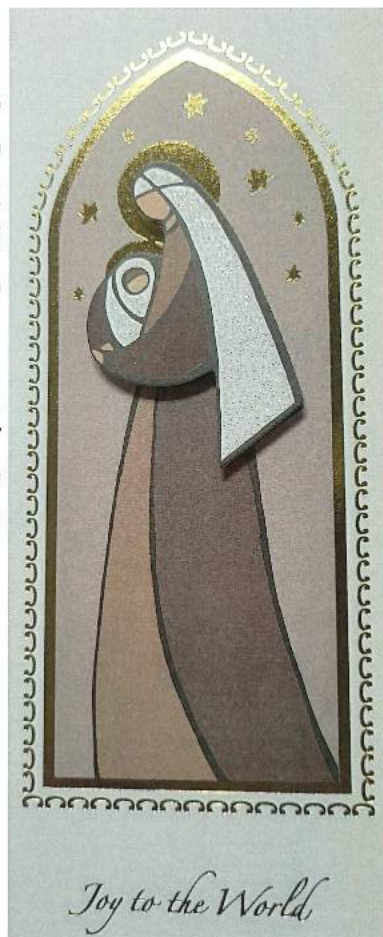

En nombre de la Comunidad Católica Nuestra Señora de las Montañas y la Escuela Católica Todos los Santos, quiero agradecerles personalmente su amable, fiel y dedicada colaboración con nuestra parroquia y escuela durante mi tiempo con ustedes. Aprecio sinceramente este compromiso constante.

Estaré ausente brevemente para celebrar el Año Nuevo con mis padres antes de regresar en enero de 2026 para retomar mi ministerio entre ustedes. Que su Navidad esté llena de calidez, alegría, risas y momentos significativos y de paz junto a sus seres queridos.

¡Feliz Navidad! Los tendré presente en mis oraciones.

Padre Richard Awange, C.S.Sp.

(Párroco)

Dear Parishioners,

Appreciation and Thanks at Christmas

The season of Christmas festivities is here again! Someone in the parish mentioned it's simply the moment to sing "Happy Birthday to Jesus!" And she's right. This season commemorates the birth of the Son the God for our salvation. We celebrate the Incarnation—the mystery of God becoming human so we can participate/share in divine nature. We see how close our God is to every human experience and appreciate His power to enter our lives and bring grace. Looking at Mary and Joseph, we learn how to allow God to guide our story and transform it for the good of all.

During this celebration, we sing a new song praising His marvelous deeds and the joy of His arrival (Ps. 96). We place our hope in God's power to keep His promises and fill us with joy (Lk 2:1-14). Additionally, we accept God's gift of His Son, Emmanuel, Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace, who not only grants us salvation but also inspires us to live righteously today.

On behalf of Our Lady of the Mountains Catholic Community and All Saints Catholic School, I want to personally thank you for your kind, faithful and dedicated support to our parish and school during my time with you. I sincerely appreciate this ongoing commitment.

I will be away briefly to celebrate the New Year with my parents before returning in January 2026 to resume my ministry among you. May your Christmas be filled with lovely warmth, joy laughter, and peaceful meaningful moments with your loved ones.

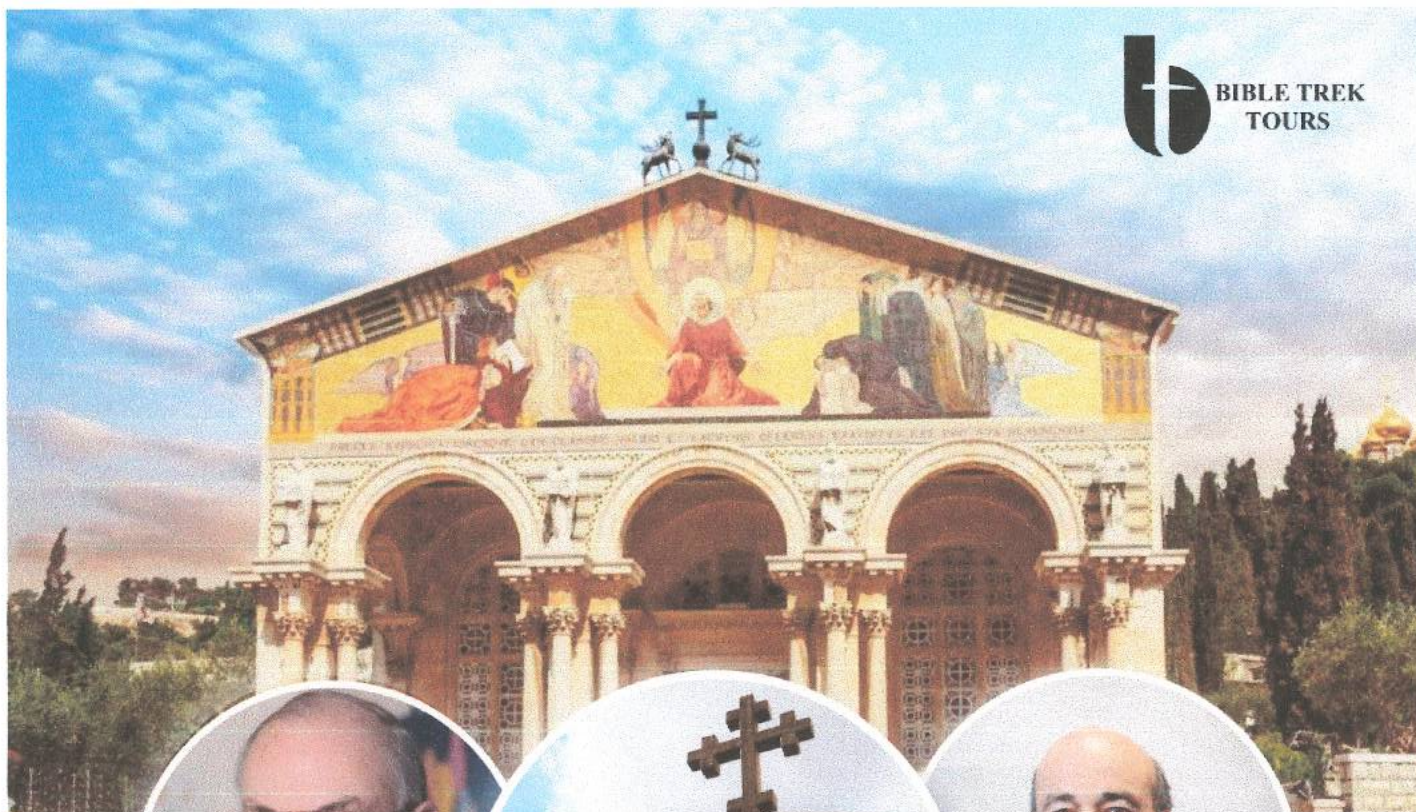

Merry Christmas! And keeping you in prayer.

Fr. Richard Awange, C.S.Sp.
