VOCATIONS

"They prostrated themselves and did him homage."
(Matthew 2:11)

The Magi offered their gifts to Christ, just as we are called to offer our own. What gifts has God given you, and how is He calling you to use them in service to Him? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (520) 838-2531 or email: sherrera@diocesetucson.org

Marriage Tip

Use a bulletin board or chalkboard to make a prayer intention space somewhere in your home. Set aside time each day to pray for each of the intentions.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany, where the Magi find the newborn king and offer him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

In the spirit of the Magi, please give your gift to St. Vincent de Paul so that comfort and peace can once again be given to a newborn child.

THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM

The unfolding of the story of the Incarnation continues today as the Church celebrates the Epiphany. The tale of the magi from the East is one of the most fascinating in all of scripture. It has much to teach us about what we can come to expect, even in circumstances and places that may seem insignificant or small. Bethlehem was a tiny town, what we might refer to today as a town without even one stop light. Yet it is over this seemingly insignificant place that the guiding star stops in its own search for the place where the Savior would be born. Too often we fail to recognize the fact that the star of Bethlehem comes to rest in our everyday lives, where we can experience God's presence, manifested in ever new ways. Epiphany calls us to shake off our stupor and recognize the One who comes to save us.

Religious Education classes resume January 7 at 5:30 pm

January 19 No Confirmation class Martin Luther King Jr.

The Magi brought gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh which were gifts deemed fit for a king. What gifts can we give to honor Jesus?

Instead of gold we can honor Jesus by giving him our obedience and making him Lord of our lives. Instead of frankincense, we can offer our praise. We can praise him not just when things go well but in the bad times too. Instead of the myrrh, that anointed his body, we can offer ourselves trusting that Jesus will carry us through all temptations and one day bring us home safely to heaven.

"Jesus, you are my King, Lord, and Savior. May these gifts honor and glorify you!"

God Calls You.

Dios te llama.

Dear Friends in Christ across the Diocese of Tucson,

Merry Christmas! I write with heartfelt gratitude to God and to each of you. This Christmas will certainly be one of the most memorable for me, as I received the wonderful gift of being named the eighth bishop of the Diocese of Tucson. I very much look forward to arriving to the diocese in February and visiting your parish communities as I begin this journey with you as your new bishop.

To those who joined us in Tucson this past Monday as well as those who joined via live stream from across the diocese, thank you for the very warm welcome! Celebrating the Eucharist in the Cathedral on my first day in the diocese with Bishop Kicanas, some of the local priests of Tucson, and so many of you was a true highlight. It is also deeply meaningful that this has happened at Christmas, a time to celebrate new life in the Christ-child - the Word born once again into our lives - the Word who gives meaning to the words we use each day in our prayers and in our ministry to one another in our cities, towns, and rural places.

I will be on pilgrimage to Rome and the Holy Land this next week and will remember you at each Mass I celebrate.

With assurances of my prayers for you and trusting in yours for me,

Bishop-elect James A. Misko
