Marriage Tip

Do you tend to talk more than listen? Today, make the effort to listen to your spouse as much as you talk to them.

Vocations

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son."
(John 3:16)

The Trinity's love calls each of us to respond generously, offering our lives in service and fidelity. In priesthood, this gift is lived out daily through the sacraments, pastoral care, and witnessing Christ's love to the world. Might God be inviting you to follow this path? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (520) 838-2531 or email: sherrera@diocesetucson.org

CareNet Baby Bottles

The Knights of Columbus continued to collect CareNet baby bottles this past weekend (only three received); however, there are 125 bottles still out.

We appreciate your continuing support and donations over the past of this worthy program.

Request that baby bottles be returned as soon as possible. CareNet is looking to pass them out to another organization supporting them.

Second Collection this weekend is for the Congregation of the Holy Spirit.

This is the order that Fr. Richard belongs to.
Thank you for your generosity

HELP NEEDED!

We are in need of a Sacristan for the Sunday 5:00pm Mass. If you attend that Mass, please consider becoming a Sacristan.

There will be NO Healing Mass on Saturday, June 6th due to the Ordination of Deacon Carlos Nagore to Priesthood at the Cathedral. There will be Anointing of the Sick on Friday, June 5th after Mass followed by Adoration.

This is the final weekend for the 50/50 Raffle ticket sales. 50% for you and 50% towards the 35th Anniversary festivities.

Tickets will be on sale in the courtyard after Masses. Drawing will be Monday, June 1st.

Consejo Matrimonial de la Semana

¿Sueles hablar más de lo que escuchas? Hoy, haz el esfuerzo de escuchar a tu cónyuge tanto como le hablas.

Este es el último fin de semana para la venta de boletos de la rifa 50/50. El 50% es para usted y el 50% se destinará a las celebraciones del 35.º aniversario. Los boletos estarán a la venta en el patio después de las misas. El sorteo se realizará el lunes 1 de junio.

La segunda colecta de este fin de semana es para la Congregación del Espíritu Santo. Esta es la orden a la que pertenece el Padre Richard. Gracias por su generosidad.

NO habrá Misa de Sanación el sábado 6 de junio, debido a la ordenación del diácono Carlos Nagore al sacerdocio en la Catedral. Habrá Unción de los Enfermos el viernes 5 de junio, después de la Misa, seguida de Adoración.

As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise.

Your gift to St. Vincent de Paul will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them.

GOSPELS AND QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, John 3:16-18
A God of Love May 31, 2026

Adults: We live within the Trinity whenever we live in love. How does this mystery connect to your daily life?

Children/Youth: How do you choose to live as a more loving person?

Memory, Understanding, and Will

St. Augustine, one of the most important Fathers of the Church, wrote a great deal on the doctrine of the Trinity. In one of his sermons, he wrestled with the passage in Scripture recounting Jesus' Baptism. He wondered how it was possible that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit could be inseparable, while, in this passage, they do not seem unified, as all of their works are clearly separated. St. Augustine searches for an analogy to help his listeners comprehend the oneness of the Trinity but the distinct works of each Person (though it's important to remember that all Trinitarian analogies fall short). He talks about the mind's ability to remember, to understand, and to will.

When you remember a story, you had to have understood the words that were being said and you need to will yourself to recall that story. When you seek to understand a concept, you have to remember what the concept is and will yourself to understand it. When you will or desire something, you must understand what you are willing, and you must remember what you are willing. Thus, while a certain act like remembering might be more visible or tangible, it necessarily depends on understanding and will.

As these acts can never be fully separated, so too with God: "The divine Persons are also inseparable in what they do. But within the single divine operation each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, especially in the divine missions of the Son's Incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit" (CCC, 267). While we might see the work of the Father, Son, or Holy Spirit more distinctly in particular situations (the Father in Creation, the Son on the Cross, the Spirit at Pentecost), you can never divorce one from the other: "Because it does not divide the divine unity, the real distinction of the Persons from one another resides solely in the relationships which relate them to one another" (CCC, 255). The Father reveals the Son, the Son reveals the Father, and the Father and the Son are revealed by the Holy Spirit.

Though the mystery is difficult to comprehend, and requires an act of faith to believe it, we should be thankful that we live in an age where we have concrete doctrine (or teaching) on the Trinity. There was a time when many theologians argued over what we should or should not believe—whether or not Jesus and the Holy Spirit were divine, whether or not the Holy Spirit could be included in the Trinity . . . and so on. It sounds exhausting! I'm just grateful that now, rather than having to formulate a teaching, we have the privilege of trying to understand one that has been revealed to us by God and developed by many holy people over many years.
