Consejo Matrimonial de la Semana

Un viejo proverbio dice: «Lo más importante que un padre puede hacer por sus hijos es amar a su madre». No te ocupes tanto del cuidado de tu hijo como para olvidar el amor que dio origen a ese hijo.

La tienda de artículos religiosos estará abierta todos los fines de semana después de la misa, desde el 7 de noviembre hasta la Navidad, ofreciendo artículos de Adviento y Navidad para sus necesidades espirituales y para hacer regalos.

Nota de Cathedral Letter Concepts

Queremos informarles de que es posible que algunos feligreses experimenten un retraso en la recepción de sus próximos sobres para las ofrendas.

Somos conscientes de lo importante que es la entrega puntual para su parroquia y sus feligreses, y les pedimos sinceras disculpas por los inconvenientes que esto pueda causar.

Nuestro equipo está trabajando activamente para minimizar estos retrasos y garantizar que todos los juegos de sobres se entreguen con la mayor rapidez posible. Los sobres están siendo procesados y se enviarán a la mayor brevedad. Los feligreses pueden seguir realizando sus contribuciones utilizando un sobre común, indicando su nombre y su número de feligrés, si disponen de él.

Agradecemos su paciencia y comprensión mientras trabajamos para resolver esta situación. Valoramos la oportunidad de servir a su parroquia.

Atentamente, el equipo de Cathedral Letter Concepts

In the Gospel today, we hear that the poor and suffering are especially blessed. As Blessed Frédéric Ozanam said, "the blessing of the poor is the blessing of God."

All Saints Catholic School

School News!

We are currently enrolling students in Pre-K through 8th grade for this school year. As of today, we have 79 students registered. At All Saints, we are committed to providing a strong academic foundation while helping our students grow in their Catholic faith. Students receive religious instruction every day and attend Mass each week as part of their educational experience.

We also want families to know that a Catholic education is more affordable than many people realize. There are grants and scholarship opportunities available that can significantly reduce tuition costs, and some programs may cover the full cost of tuition regardless of income.

If you have school-aged children, grandchildren, or know a family looking for a faith-filled educational environment, we would love to speak with you. Please reach out to the school at 520-378-7012 with any questions or to schedule a tour. Thank you, and God bless!

The Eucharist is the human being's ongoing important encounter with God in which the Lord makes himself our food and gives himself to transform us into him. (Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI Angelus, 29, July 2012)

The person who thinks only of himself says only prayers of petition; the one who thinks of his neighbor says prayers of intercession; whoever thinks only of loving and serving God, says prayers of abandonment to God's Will, and this is the prayer of the saints.The price of this prayer is too high for most people, for it demands the displacement of our ego. Many souls want God to do their will; they bring their completed plans and ask Him to rubberstamp them without a change. The petition of the "Our Father" is changed by them to read: My will be done on earth" It is very difficult for the Eternal to give Himself to those who are interested only in the temporal. The soul who lives on the ego-level or the I-level and refuses to be brought to the Divine-level is like an egg that is kept forever in a place too cool for incubation, so that it is never called upon to live a life outside of the shell of its own incomplete development. Every 'I' is still an embryo of what a person is meant to be. (Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen)

BISHOPS OF THE ARIZONA CATHOLIC CONFERENCE REFLECTION ON THE 2026 ELECTION

As the Bishops of the Arizona Catholic Conference, we offer theological reflections on the intersection of faith and politics regarding the upcoming election.

A healthy democracy finds its surest footing on freedom of speech and varying opinions. Such political discourse calls all people of good will to respect and protect the human dignity of others, including those with whom we strongly disagree.

The Gospel reminds us that we are called to not just love our friends, but to also love our enemies (Mt 5:44). And in the Catholic theological tradition, St. Thomas Aquinas explains that love is willing the good of the other (c.f. St. Thomas Aquinas, STh I-II, 26, 4, corp. art.). Furthermore, Jesus himself calls us to pray even for those who persecute us.

Unfortunately, we live in a time where there exists much division and hostility throughout society. Our country recently celebrated its 250th anniversary while still facing many significant challenges. These challenges, however, offer a profound opportunity to do what great saints have done throughout history, which has always been to humbly lead by example and to lovingly change the world with our prayers and actions.

It is almost unimaginable, but for the first time ever we have an American Pope! If our hearts remain open, there is much we can learn from his catechesis and pastoral example.

On July 3rd, 2026, Pope Leo XIV received the Liberty Medal of the National Constitution Center and gave a powerful reflection on both the founding and the future of the United States of America. In his remarks, the Holy Father poignantly noted that "the forbearers of our country, men and women of diverse backgrounds, religions and languages, were able to find that common ground and the strength to pursue a better future." Specifically, he expressed his hope that this common ground, which includes "a shared human dignity, equality and the rights laid out in the Declaration of Independence – ever be a source of unity and a guiding light for the present moment and for the years to come."

As we approach the upcoming election, we would do well to reflect on the words of Pope Leo XIV and to pray for unity in both our Church and our country. Let us also thoughtfully form our consciences by our faith and good will for all people so as to humbly follow the will of God in all that we say and all that we do, including our vote.

Most Rev. John P. Dolan (Bishop of Phoenix), Most Rev. James A. Misko (Bishop of Tucson), Most Rev. James S. Wall (Bishop of Gallup), Most Rev. Artur Bubnevych (Bishop of the Eparchy of Phoenix), Most Rev. Eduardo A. Nevares (Auxiliary Bishop of Phoenix), Most Rev. Peter Dai Bui (Auxiliary Bishop of Phoenix).
